In today's gospel Jesus teaches us: "One's life does not consist of possessions."
 We spend so much time working to obtain more stuff; we don't have time for the people in our lives.
 What is enough?
 Are the words of Jesus, "You fool", meant for us?

Understanding The Crusades ~ There is so much misinformation about the crusades that took place in history. Listen to Dr. Thomas Madden, professor of History at St. Louis University on what actually took place. In this eye-opening presentation, Dr. Madden debunk popular myths surrounding the crusades and show us the different misconceptions that exist among most people today. He has appeared in such venues as the New York Times, the Washington Post, the Wall Street Journal and the History Channel. Find out what really went on in his presentation Understanding The Crusades which is a CD which is available on the Deepen Your Faith display at the Sycamore Street entrances of the church. A $3.00 donation is requested.

Take the One Hour Fatima Challenge! ~ Next Saturday, August 6th, St Mary Church in Leipsic will continue their series of First Saturdays. Beginning at 8:00 a.m., with Rosary followed by Mass, it will be completed in one hour. As requested by the Blessed Virgin in her apparitions at Fatima, the challenge is to repeat this on the First Saturday (Aug 5th, Sept 3, Oct 1). That only involves a total of 3 hours over the course of 3 months to receive the blessings promised by Heaven for yourself, your family and the whole world. Coffee and refreshments will be served afterwards as well for those who are not on the move right away. We invite you to think of making the Fatima Challenge as a Spiritual Triathlon that involves three main elements: Rosary Meditation, Holy Communion and Confession each month. These are all done with the intention of making an act of Reparation for sins and blasphemies committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary. "In the end my Immaculate Heart will Triumph."

A Note from Fr. Tom

FESTIVAL NEWS: It's only one week away! It's a lot of fun for everyone, even the workers. All of us are important to the success of the festival, each in our own way. Every worker counts; all of us contribute something to the success of this event that provides a major share of the year's income. I have just a very few requests for help:

- We need more volunteers for the French Fry booth on Saturday evening.
- We ask that parents look over the worker list, and notice where their sons' and daughters' jobs are. Please make sure they are present. We are counting on them.
- On Monday morning at about 8:00 a.m., we will start dismantling everything and putting it away for the 2017 festival. For the last several years a great work crew has turned out. One year we finished before lunch! So you see that clean-up is not a huge time commitment, but it's necessary.

TODAY'S GOSPEL and the FESTIVAL: An interviewer once asked J. Paul Getty, who may then have been the richest man in the United States, why he still drove a beat-up old car. He said, "If you think wealthy people want to get more money so they can buy more things, you haven't understood at all. People who don't have money want money to be able to spend it. Really rich people want more money just to have it. Some people collect butterflies or stamps; rich people collect money. To have it." But in today's Gospel, Jesus is telling us that the important thing is not the size of a person's (or parish's) bank account; what is important is the size of the heart.

I hope we do well financially at the festival. Don't we all? However, we aren't making money in order to have money. We're making money in order to have the tools we need for spreading the Gospel.

R.C.I.A.: Some things are even more important than the festival. What is most important is the Lord's command, "Go forth and teach all nations." Please consider inviting someone to receive the sacraments and join the Catholic Church.
