The phrase in today's gospel, "I don't know where you come from," is often used by parents about children and children about parents.

Change is so rapid. One generation has little in common with another.
 We depend on love, trust and mutual respect to bridge this gap.

CCD News ~ CCD registration will take place Sunday, August 21st after the 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. Masses and August 27th and 28th after the 4:30 p.m., 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. Masses down in the church basement. A primary and God-given responsibility of you, the parent, is to provide for the spiritual formation of your child. We, the Church community, will help you with this duty through the Christian Formation program (CCD) by providing instruction in the Catholic Faith and prayer. The sacraments that the Church celebrates regularly such as Reconciliation, The Holy Eucharist, and Confirmation must always be taken seriously by the Faithful. The sacraments are very important because they give us God's grace. For your child to be able to receive these sacraments, they must be enrolled the year before in CCD class. Regular attendance is necessary for your child to be properly prepared to receive the sacraments. If your child was not baptized here at St. Anthony's, we will need a copy of your child's baptismal record. All children age Kindergarten through eighth grade are welcome to attend. Classes run from 9:30-10:45 a.m. on Sunday mornings from September through April. If you have any questions, please call Judy Schroeder @ 659-5498. Thank you.
Classes start Sunday, September 11th.

CCD News ~ Would you be willing to share your time and talents with kids by helping to teach the Catholic Faith? I am looking for someone to help substitute teach on Sundays. It's easy and fun and you just follow the lesson prepared for you. Please call Judy Schroeder @659-5498 if you can help.

A Note from Fr. Tom

BACK TO SCHOOL: I don't remember much about kindergarten. After all, kindergarten was 64 years ago! But I distinctly remember my first day in Grade 1. After everyone got settled, Sister Mary Pius announced that we were going to learn to sing "My Country 'Tis of Thee." She would sing a line, and we would repeat it. I was ok with the first couple of lines, but when she sang "Land where my fathers died," I put my hand up and told her, "Sister, I ain't singing that because my fathers ain't dead." She called me up to her desk and asked since when do Catholic school children say "ain't." Didn't I know that only dirty children who play in the alley say "ain't"? And furthermore, just who did I think I was telling Sister Mary Pius what I would sing and what I wouldn't sing? That day I learned three lessons before recess: 1. Catholic schools hold you to higher standards; 2. maybe it's a bad idea to say everything that you think; 3. learning is a team effort, and nobody should grandstand.

I concelebrated Sister Mary Pius' funeral several years ago. She died on the day before her 80th birthday. I went because in the remaining months of grade 1 I had learned that she was a kind and gentle person who was a great reading, religion and math teacher, and who loved children and it seemed, almost everybody else. I am still grateful for what I learned on the first day of Grade 1, and for the lessons I received in my remaining 19 years of Catholic education.

We still have higher standards. The Diocese just posted its curriculum for grades K to 12 on line, and it's a demanding game plan for each year. Our teachers follow it carefully. Parents can be sure that when their children get a St. Anthony diploma, they are fully equipped for high school, and that they have the necessary foundation for the adult world. More importantly, parents can be sure that they've been through all the basics about the Bible, morality, and Catholic Church teaching. We still believe that learning is a team effort. Much learning takes place by doing and by working with others. After all, isn't that why we bring the students to Mass twice a week? They learn their faith by listening of course, but also by bodily posture, by assisting at the altar, by reading the Scripture of the day out loud, and by stepping forward for Holy Communion. And they do all this not as individuals, but as members of a Catholic community. Now as far as learning not to say everything that you think... well, they're kids. I would never suppress the ones who have stories to tell and love to tell them, but we'll work on the virtue of prudence.

USAIN BOLT'S SILVER MEDAL: Last Sunday, a week before his 30th birthday, Usain Bolt of Jamaica became the first person ever to win the gold medal in the 100-meter dash in three consecutive Olympics. He also wears a silver medal, the Miraculous Medal, the medal showing Mary with the inscription in French, "O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee." Usain Bolt is a serious Catholic who uses his God-given gifts to bring others to Jesus Christ and His Church. In a world with so many temptations for celebrities (and for the rest of us too), we should pray for all of them that one day we may be able to say what Saint Paul said: "I have fought the good fight, I have run the race, I have kept the faith. From now on, the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance." (2 Timothy 4:7-8)

COMING SOON – THAT MAN IS YOU: That Man is You – Year 2 – The Spirit of Nazareth will begin on the Saturday, September 10th. The doors open at 6:00 a.m. for breakfast. The presentation begins at 6:30 a.m., then there is a small group discussion at 7:00 a.m. and we conclude at 7:30 a.m. Any man 18 years and older is welcome to attend. You are welcome to attend Year 2 even if you did not take part in Year 1. Year 1 was a great help to me in understanding Catholic male leadership, and I am really looking forward to Year 2. I hope to see a great many men of the parish there.
