Despite all our time saving gadgets, we still have less leisure and family time.

To solve this we created the Myth of Quality Time.

Don't be fooled: Quality Time is Quantity Time.

Jesus counsels us today, we "cannot serve two masters" and expect to be happy.

Dedicate time to your family. No one in their final hours regretted not spending more time at work.

COLLECTION FOR FLOOD VICTIMS: The Bishops of the United States have asked for a nation-wide collection for flood victims in Louisiana, to be taken up this weekend. All monies will be forwarded to Catholic Charities of Toledo, who will then forward donations to Catholic Charities of the dioceses in Louisiana that were affected. If you are not prepared to give today but want to take part, please put your donation in a plain envelope, write on it what your donation is for, and put it in the collection sometime soon. We will also gladly receive donations at the parish office.

PILGRIM VIRGIN STATUE: In preparation for the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of Mary’s apparitions at Fatima, Portugal, Pilgrim Virgin statues will be at many parishes in the United States starting this October. Toledo is one of the first dioceses to be visited; our parish is one of the first in the Diocese. The date will be Wednesday, October 19, beginning at the 8:00 a.m. Mass, and with concluding prayers at 7 p.m. Several of our parish organizations (and perhaps the school children) will offer Rosaries during the day. There will also be the Angelus at noon and 6 p.m., and the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3 p.m. Please plan on spending some time during the day to ask Mary’s intercession for your family, for our Pope and Bishop, for our parish, and for our nation and world.

HOW DOES A CATHOLIC VOTE? There is no one-size-fits-all answer to that question. Father Mitch Pacwa, SJ, who frequently appears on EWTN, recently dedicated a webcast to answer that question. Here is a summary of what he said:

We have a responsibility to be politically engaged, especially in today’s situation where religious freedom is under attack. The laity is especially responsible for politics. The Church’s responsibility is to critique all candidates, and not on a partisan basis. We must hold our values in the right order. Our first loyalty is to God, to Jesus Christ, and to His Church. Our second loyalty is to our country. Our third loyalty is to the political party that we identify with.

Does the candidate live according to the Ten Commandments? Does he/she live up to the marriage vows they made to their spouse? If they don’t live up to their marriage vows, are they likely to live up to their oath of office? Will they tell citizens the truth? Will they respect human life? Remember that if a person’s life is taken away, they can exercise no other rights.

What is the character of the politician? Do we use the bad behavior of the candidate we don’t like to justify the bad behavior of the candidate we do like, or do we weigh the behavior of both? Are they wise, i.e. do they understand how the world works, do they understand people, and do they understand the right way to exercise power?

Does he or she live the natural moral virtues? Is he/she prudent, i.e. does the candidate weigh a situation rightly, and then try to discover the response that is best for the common good? Is he/she just, i.e. is he/she concerned that everyone receives what is properly his, and that everyone contributes to the common good as best as one can? Does he/she show fortitude, i.e. is he/she firm in their decisions, or is he/she easily pushed around by persuasive people? Does he/she show temperance, i.e. does he/she restrain his/her impulses and passions?
