In today's gospel Jesus advises: "Stay awake, watch out, and pray for the strength to hold your ground" when "fearful and bewildering signs" appear threatening your family.
 Resist being "fearful," fear cripples!
 Instead "pray for the strength" to be courageous.

HURRICANE MATTHEW COLLECTION: Our collection for victims of Hurricane Matthew amounted to $1300. Toledo Catholic Charities has already transmitted our donation to Catholic Charities of the affected dioceses. Thank you for having been "the merciful face of Jesus Christ" to people who suffered serious losses and injuries.

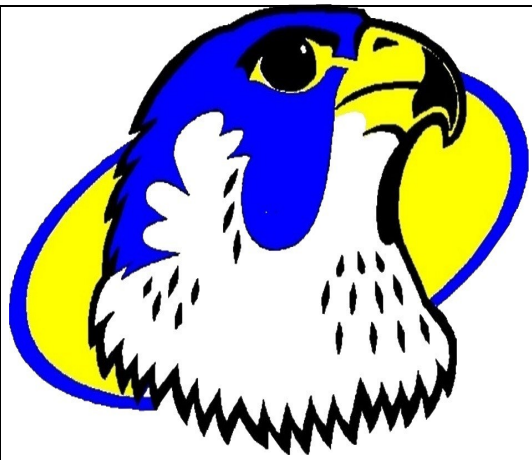

ADVENT PENANCE SERVICES BEGIN: The first of this season's Advent Penance Services will be tomorrow, November 28 at Glandorf at 4:00 and 7:00 p.m. The next one is on Wednesday, November 30 at New Cleveland at 7 p.m.

SPEAKING OF CONFESSION BEFORE CHRISTMAS: This year, Advent begins with one of my favorite readings. Isaiah prophesies that when the Messiah comes, the world's nations will "beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks." From the tools of war and violence people will forge tools for producing food. Our world has advanced (regressed?) so far beyond swords and spears, and yet the longing remains. What if there were no more shootouts in our streets, or assassinations of police? What if people weren't terrorists' targets, just because of their religious beliefs? What if people weren't the targets of gossip, either spread via Facebook, or spread the old-fashioned way? What if there were no battles in the malls over expensive electronic trinkets that will be so obsolete in a year that people will laugh at you for using one?

Advent is a reminder that such a world began in quiet and humility in Bethlehem, and it still comes to reality in us, the followers of Jesus Christ. We know, however that battles rage in our hearts; sometimes the battles come to the fore, and we go on the attack. This tendency needs to be healed and forgiven before we can welcome the Prince of Peace. And so the Church in its wisdom encourages us to take part in the Sacrament of Reconciliation before Christmas. We already had Confessions for Life Teen; those who couldn't make it that evening are welcome anytime during Advent. First Confessions for Grade 2 are this Thursday evening, December 1 at 7 p.m. Grades 3-8 in St. Anthony School will have a penance service next Tuesday, December 6. And there will be Confessions for CCD students between Masses on Sunday, December 4, 11 and 18. Parents, grandparents and other adult friends of our young people, let's show by our example that this healing sacrament is the way to peace of heart; it's the way to the peace of Christ in this healing season.

CONFESSIONS FOR PRIESTS: Yes, we go to Confession too, although it's a little tricky because we can't just get into line on Saturday afternoon. The Bishop has summoned us priests to Carey for the 2nd annual "Day of Sanctification" tomorrow. Archbishop Bernard Hebda of Minneapolis - St. Paul will be our speaker. So pray for us priests as we make our Advent preparation.
