Today's gospel tells us "all Jerusalem" was upset because "King Herod was deeply troubled".
A similar ripple effect happens in families; one person's negative attitude can affect the whole family.
If you want a peaceful and joyful home, it must start with you.
Be peaceful and joyful!

A Note from Fr. Tom

WE THREE KINGS: Saint Matthew is mostly interested in how Jesus brought the good news of the Kingdom "to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Of the four Gospel writers, he is the one most likely to bring out stories that make non-Jews look bad. One glaring exception is the story of the Magi who come seeking "the newborn King of the Jews." They are obviously foreigners. They show that they are unfamiliar with the Old Testament prophets. They clearly were unaware of what a bad actor King Herod was. Politically aware persons would have done their best not to have Herod notice them. The gifts they bring – gold, frankincense and myrrh – were produced far from Israel. Some people say those gifts would have come from Iran. Others say these three items would have been available in Yemen.

God led them to see a message in the stars, and to feel called to make a pilgrimage to the newborn King. They trusted God even when they heard the message from the book of Micah that led them from sophisticated Jerusalem to rundown Bethlehem. And when the star led them to an ordinary house with a Mother and Child who looked so ordinary, their reaction was to continue saying "yes" to God. Mary showed them the Child, and they adored the Child and presented their gifts: gold for a king, frankincense for God, and myrrh to prepare God and the King for His burial. Their final "yes" to God was to pay attention to a dream that warned them to stay far from Herod. They found a way back home that did not take them through Jerusalem. Herod did not get the information he wanted, and so the Holy Family had a head start as they fled to Bethlehem.

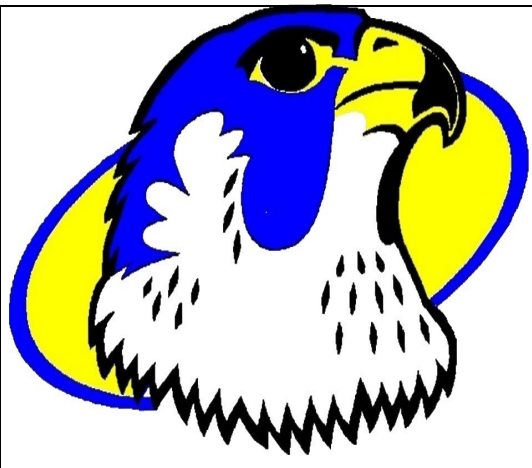

The Magi teach us to say "yes" to God even when by our standards that "yes" seems unwise, foolish or even dangerous. They teach us that God isn't found in palaces or among the celebrities; He is found among the ordinary people. And they teach us to offer God our gifts whatever they may be. Our gifts came from God; we let God show us how and when He wants us to dispose of them.

Mary teaches us that to be God's followers, we must introduce strangers to Jesus. She and Saint Joseph teach us to accept trials for the sake of Jesus' message. And the highly Jewish St. Matthew makes it clear in his conclusion to the Gospel that the Church must carry Jesus' message to all nations. He records Jesus' final words: "Go forth and teach all nations."

VIRTUES AND VICIES: Our Lenten adult ed program, "Seven Deadly Sins, Seven Lively Virtues" will begin on Monday, January 30 at 7 p.m. in our parish hall. Each session will last about an hour. Participants will receive a workbook (one per family) and each individual will receive an examination of conscience card. Cost of the program will be $20 per family, with scholarships available.

The seven deadly sins are just that: deadly. But Bishop Robert Barron creatively links a positive virtue to each of the Seven Deadlies, showing us how we can neutralize those soul-poisoning tendencies. He also shows us an example of each of these virtues in the life of Mary. I think this series will help people make even better Confessions at Easter than they did at Christmas. It will also help them become better and more positive spiritual leaders for their children and grandchildren. The program will end on or about March 13, depending if we have severe weather on Mondays.
