In today's gospel, Jesus cautions it is not enough to provide food for our children;
"one does not live on bread alone."
Let Lent 2017 be a time when you are "led by the Spirit" to explore new ways to be a moral guide to your children.

Why Pray the Stations of the Cross? ~ The Stations of the Cross are an ancient tradition in the Catholic Church going back to the fourth century when Christians went on pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Like many of our Catholic traditions, the Stations of the Cross can be rich, deep, and meaningful, but at the same time we can lose sight of their significance and how to relate them to our everyday lives. Reason #2 from our Holy Father on why we should pray the Stations of the Cross.

2. They Put Us Into the Story
"And you, who do you want to be? Like Pilate? Like Simon? Like Mary? Jesus is looking at you now and is asking you: do you want to help Me carry the Cross? Brothers and sisters, with all the strength of your youth, how will you respond to Him?"
Pope Francis, World Youth Day, Way of the Cross, July 26, 2013

Stations of the Cross ~ Let us all come together to pray the Stations of the Cross at 1:00 p.m. or 7:00 p.m. the Fridays in Lent: March 10, March 17, March 24, March 31 and April 7. The Stations of the Cross is a Lenten devotion that offers witness by way of a spiritual pilgrimage to Jesus' Passion and Death in following his footsteps to the cross. Also known as the Way of the Cross, or as Way of Sorrows ( Via Crucis, a street within the Old City of Jerusalem believed to be the actual path Jesus walked to Mount Calvary), the Stations originated in medieval Europe when wars prevented Christian pilgrims from visiting the Holy Land. It is a powerful way to contemplate, and enter into, the mystery of Jesus' gift of himself to us. We are renewed in this intimate experience of Jesus' solidarity with all humanity in our way of the cross each day.

A Note from Fr. Tom

FORTY BAGS OF LENT: My brother has alerted me to a Lenten practice called “Forty Bags of Lent.” It’s based on the supposition that each of us owns too many clothes and other possessions. The way you carry it out is simple. Each day you look in a closet or drawer for things you no longer use or wear, and you put them in a bag (the size of the bag doesn’t matter.) No fair saying “These trousers will fit after my diet”; or “But my dear Aunt Brunhilda gave me this sweater”. If you haven’t worn it in a year, it goes to a poor person who doesn’t have a sweater or nice trousers. Toward the end of Lent you take your forty bags to a charity like Heartbeat or St. Vincent de Paul who can distribute it – unless, of course, you are hanging on to some things that belong in the ragbag. Then you don’t insult the poor with them; they’re for washing the windows, checking your dipstick, etc. Life then becomes simpler, and you will have taken a step toward helping people in need as Jesus would want you to help them.

“Forty Bags of Lent” may sound simplistic. But it’s just one more way of saying “no” to the self-worship that seems to be at the heart of our culture. In today’s Gospel, Jesus shows us the way. At every turn He resists the temptation to use his power for himself. Each response He makes to Satan represents a surrender to the will of God. “If I am going to eat, it is because God gives the food. If I am going to be lifted above the earth, it is because God will lift me up. If I am going to rule, it is because God will set me on a throne.” Later in Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus uses his God-given power in exactly these ways but always for the service of the Father’s mission and never for his own gain or glory. That’s why we have nice things in our homes: for the Father’s mission. Is that how you and I are using them?

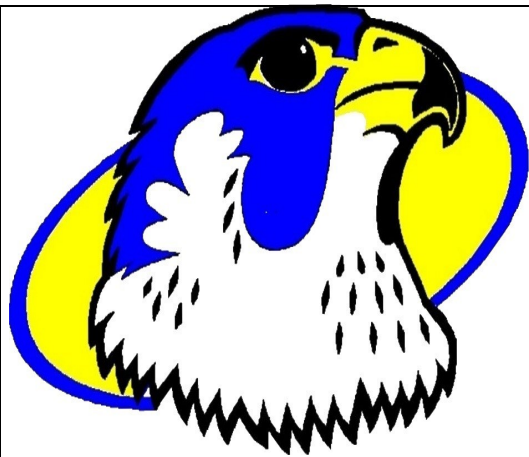

What Jesus shows us this week is that God’s will must be paramount in all things, even those over which we feel control or autonomy. During the season of Lent, we fast, pray and give alms not to become better people, but to remind ourselves that our gifts and resources come from God and are meant to be spent in the service of others.

THE SOUND SYSTEM: Sound systems are tricky, temperamental things. This is especially true in churches like our own, where every surface is a hard surface that creates echoes and reverberation. There is a very fine line between turning the volume high enough so that everyone can hear, yet not so high that we get feedback and loud static. I would ask everyone not to open the sound cabinet and to try to adjust the many dials inside. The toggle switch on the side of the gray metal cabinet will turn all the components on or off. This switch should take care of everyone’s needs. Thanks to Mike Birkemeier and Harold Gerten who worked between the 8:30 and 11:00 Sunday Masses to bring everything back into proper adjustment.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS: This Friday there will be Stations of the Cross at 7 p.m. only. I can’t do 1:00 Stations because there is a priests’ continuing education day in Fostoria. The children won’t be there because they have early dismissal this Friday. If possible, please come to Stations of the Cross at 7 p.m. Next week our schedule will get back to normal.

MONDAY MORNING MASSES: We have Monday morning Masses during Advent and Lent. This is for everyone’s spiritual advantage (including mine). I’m grateful to the people who join in our weekday Masses, no matter what season of the Church year.
