*Today's gospel says Jesus chased the merchants out of the temple, it doesn't say He was angry.
 Jesus teaches us to act from conviction and not from anger.
 He didn't condemn the merchants, only their business practice.
 Attack the behavior and not the person.*

"Why do Catholics....."

Why do Catholics have a tradition of praying the Stations of the Cross? This devotion has evolved over time. Tradition holds that our Blessed Mother Mary visited daily the scenes of our Lord's passion. After Constantine legalized Christianity in 312, this pathway was marked with its important stations, and crowds of pilgrims from various countries who visited the holy places followed the Way of the Cross. By the 5th Century, these Stations were reproduced in other areas for those who could not travel to the Holy Land, and thus could do so in a spiritual way in their hearts. By the 15th Century, renowned artists made reproductions that were masterpieces, and by the 17th these became popular in churches. The number of Stations has evolved to 15 which now included the Resurrection of Christ due to its intrinsic relationship with the passion and death of our Lord. Reasons from Pope Francis to pray the Stations: 1. Allows us to put our trust in Christ. 2. Puts us into the story. 3. Reminds us that Jesus suffers with us. 4. Compels us to action. 5. Helps us make a decision for or against Christ. 6. Reveals God's response to evil in the world. 7. Gives us the certainty of God's love for us. 8. Guides us from the Cross to the Resurrection. Come join us in this prayerful journey on Fridays at 1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

A Note from Fr. Tom

THIRD, FOURTH, FIFTH SUNDAYS OF LENT: Today and on the next two Sundays, we will be celebrating the scrutinies for Amber Phelan, who has been chosen for Baptism, Confirmation and First Holy Communion. This will take place at the 11:00 a.m. Mass. We will also remember in prayer Alex Barnhart and Steve Diller, who are already baptized, and have been called to the sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Alex and Steve will not have a formal place in today's liturgy, but we still remember them in prayer.

What is a scrutiny? It doesn't mean that we put people under the microscope to find out if they are worthy. The introduction in the Rite for Christian Initiation says: "The scrutinies are intended to purify the catechumens' minds and hearts, to strengthen them against temptation, to purify their intentions, and to make firm their decision, so that they remain more closely united with Christ and make progress in their efforts to love God more deeply." It sounds like something that all of us could use, doesn't it?

The rite is quite simple. We will call Amber forward after the Creed. Her godmother will place her hand on Amber's shoulder. There will be a moment of silent prayer, followed by special petitions for those in RCIA, and then two prayers over the chosen one.

Part of the Scrutiny is special readings that refer to Baptism. These are found on pages 68, 74 and 80 of the Missalette. Today's reading about the woman at the well shows Jesus' mercy to a sinner. Jesus reveals that He is the source of living water. He is the One Who makes it possible for us to worship God "in spirit and in truth." Most importantly He is the Messiah. And in the woman we see that baptized people are called to evangelize. God gives the harvest, but He depends on us to announce to people that Jesus is the Savior of the world. We will use the special readings at all weekend Masses, so that preachers and musicians don't have to do two separate preparations.
