Relationships come with a price tag. We must be willing to entrust ourselves to another, to let go of our autonomy and die to our independence.
It is in dying to our independence that we find interdependence with others.

"Why do Catholics....."

Why do Catholics have the Sacrament of Reconciliation? Also called Confession or Sacrament of Penance was instituted by Christ and found in Mt 9:2-8...Son of Man has authority to forgive sins, Jn 20:23...whose sins you forgive/retain are forgiven/retained, Jn 20:22...breathed on the, "receive Holy Spirit", 2Cor 5:17-20...given us the ministry of reconciliation, Jms 5:13-15... prayer of presbyters forgives sin, Jms 5:16...confess your sins to one another, Mt 18:18...whatever you bind & loose on earth, so it is in heaven, 1Jn 5:16...there is no sin that is not deadly. In the early church people would confess their sins openly in front of the whole church, by the seventh century people confessed privately to a priest, whose authority was given by Christ and handed down from the apostles. It is humbling to confess our sins, taking responsibility for them and very uplifting to hear the priest say "I absolve you from your sins...". The penitent needs to be contrite (have true sorrow and detest of their sins, and a firm resolve not to sin again), then confess their sins, and finally make satisfaction for the harm their sins have caused (also called penance) which is given to them by the priest. Grace and spiritual strength are our rewards.

A Note from Fr. Tom

CONGRATULATIONS, NEWLY CONFIRMED! This coming Saturday, the 24th, 54 of our young people will be confirmed at Rosary Cathedral, along with young people from six other parishes (Genoa, Oak Harbor, Napoleon and 3 Toledo parishes: St. John, Immaculate Conception, and Historic St. Patrick). These are always grand occasions at the Cathedral celebrating the presence and power of the Holy Spirit who sends us out to spread Jesus' message. Congratulations to our students and teachers for their efforts in getting ready for this day.

EXTRA CONFESSION TIMES: As Holy Week approaches, we try to accommodate as many people as possible who want to celebrate the sacrament of God's forgiveness. This Tuesday, March 20, there will be Confessions during Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament immediately after the 8:00 a.m. Mass. Later that morning, there will be Confessions from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

This Thursday, March 22 we will take part in the diocesan program "The Light Is On." This effort started in the Archdiocese of Washington DC as a means to encourage people to celebrate this wonderful sacrament. Confessions are scheduled around the Diocese from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Next Saturday, March 24 Confessions will be heard from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Fr. Steve Schroeder will be present at 2:00 p.m.; I will come back from Confirmation at the Cathedral as quickly as I can to join him.

Next Wednesday, March 28 there will be Confessions from 7:00 p.m. until at least 8:30 p.m. Again, Father Steve Schroeder and I will both be hearing Confessions.

END OF LENT: Holy Week is next week! How time flies, especially in a year with an early Easter. There are so many things to prepare, and so many people needed for the celebrations.

Palm Sunday: March weather in Ohio being what it is, we will plan on starting Mass in the vestibule rather than outside.

Holy Thursday: The Mass of the Lord's Supper will take place at 7:00 p.m. We still need a few more people to take part in the Washing of the Feet. We would also like to hear from Communion ministers and their spouses who are willing to carry a candle and walk in the procession on Holy Thursday. It's a great profession of faith in the sacrament that you minister. The second and third grade students are also invited to be in the procession. I believe that students who are getting ready for First Holy Communion need to celebrate faith in Jesus' real presence as much as they need to hear about it in class.

Good Friday: The liturgy of the Lord's Suffering and Death takes place at 1:00 p.m. It is a simple celebration without Mass. We listen to the readings, pray petitions that are more solemn than usual, venerate the Crucifix, and have a Communion service with Hosts that were consecrated the day before.

Holy Saturday/Easter Vigil: The church remains silent until the Vigil service begins at 8:30 p.m. One RCIA candidate will receive all three Sacraments of Initiation; two others who are already baptized will receive Confirmation and First Holy Communion. It is by far our most important liturgy of the year.
