 Being more is paramount.*

SUNDAY REFLECTION

Being of Service. “Our business is to serve you” – we see this advertised in enterprises of various kinds. From the local gas station up to the congress, service is offered. Those who serve us in government are called “public servants.” The Prime Minister of Great Britain is the “First Servant” (ministry means service) of the nation. Professional service is offered by physicians and psychiatrists, with a few days later a substantial bill in the mail. The business of the Church is also to serve. Time and again our Lord emphasizes this aspect. What is the difference between service as mentioned above and the ministry (service) of the Church? It should be the quality of service and the personal touch in it, though many public servants, doctors, nurses, salespeople, waitresses, and bank tellers “serve” as true Christians should – with dedication and a personal touch. If so, they are the “Church of Christ” and carry out what our Lord says in today’s Gospel: “Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all.” Our service is more clearly Christian when no bill follows. We render such a free service to a poor or suffering person whenever possible; children should provide it for parents. Church workers, religious, and priests should offer free service wherever service is needed.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK:
 The Sacrament of Healing will be celebrated at all Masses the weekend of October 20-21.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What is "All Hallows Eve"?

Answer: All Hallows Eve, or All Saints' Eve, is a celebration observed in a number of countries on 31 October, the eve of the Western Christian feast of All Hallows' Day. It begins the three-day observance of Allhallowtide, the time in the liturgical year dedicated to remembering the dead, including saints (hallows), martyrs, and all the faithful departed.

Families and the Gospel...

October 21      Mk 10:35-45

"Advise" books abound on marriage and parenting. Jesus tells us in today's gospel the real secret: satisfying relationships depend on how well we sacrifice our needs to serve others. It is not about "getting," it's about "giving" ourselves. If you feel like you are a servant to your children and spouse, then you are doing it right.

MISSION STATEMENT

We are a community of believers, in the Roman Catholic tradition, responding to the Risen Lord's invitation to preach the Good News, and, if necessary, to use words.

We are called to form and nurture our faith community through the celebration of the sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and to minister to each other's needs out of charity for all. Education from cradle to grave enhances our growth and extends the Lord's kingdom.

We share what we have and who we are because our loving Father has revealed to us that faith is a verb, not a noun. We pray that what our Father has given us by way of time, talent and treasure can be transformed into expressions of love for Him and each other.
