Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 23, 2017

Those who are just must be kind.

— Wisdom 12:19

THE MERCY, POWER, AND LOVE OF GOD

The first reading today, from the book of Wisdom, makes its point over and over, at least five times in five verses! God is mighty, but lenient to all. God's power is shown in kindness and clemency, not in harshness and condemnation, and those who govern God's people must govern in the same way, with kindness. This loving kindness and gentleness is not contrary to God's might, but is a direct result of God's primacy over all. Who are we, then, to judge what is in the hearts of our fellow Christians and all people, when God commands justice with love and clemency? Likewise, the Holy Spirit makes up for our ignorance of what we need, speaking in a language we do not yet understand. But God knows our needs before we do, understands the intercessions of the Spirit, and helps us in our weakness. This is our hope: God's mercy, power, and love.

Catechetical Ministry Needs Your Help!!!

We need Catechists (Religion Teachers)! We are in need of 2 Wednesday Catechists and 1 Saturday Catechist. The only experience needed is your willingness to share our faith and your love for our Lord with the children. Training will be provided by Catechetical Ministry. Please contact our office at (408) 251-0165, as soon as possible. Registration for classes begins soon.
