July 9, 2017

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.”
— Matthew 11:28

A HUMBLE KING

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today’s readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches “from the River to the ends of the earth” (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!

This Weekend’s Second Collection is for Peter’s Pence for the Holy Father

As Pope Francis said in his 2016 Urbi et Orbi address, “The Lord...enables us to see with his eyes of love and compassion those who hunger and thirst, strangers and prisoners, the marginalized and the outcast, the victims of oppression and violence.” The Peter’s Pence collection benefits precisely the people we ask the Lord to help us see. This collection helps to bring a little more mercy into their lives. Please join with our brothers and sisters in faith from around the world and support this collection.

“A little mercy makes the world less cold and more just.” Pope Francis

Is God calling you? — Come and See Day

Founded by Sr. Dominic in 1206, the Dominican nuns offer their lives to God for the salvation of souls through contemplative presence in the heart of the Church and of the Order. Praising unceasingly, blessing by intercession, preaching through a life of contemplation — does this sound interesting to you? Catholic single women, ages 18-38, are invited to Come and See Day on Saturday, July 15th. Contact

Sister Joseph Marie, O.P. at vocations@nunsmenlo.org for more information and to register.

This weekend's sanctuary flowers are offered from Cynthia Pagdanganan in honor of loved ones.

If you would like to donate flowers for the Altar in memory of a loved one, in thanksgiving or in celebration of a baptism, birthday, or anniversary, please call Kitty Brady @ 408-259-8846 for information. Suggested donation is $125-150.
