Jesus said,
 "This is my blood
 of the covenant,
 which will be
 shed for many.
 Amen, I say to you,
 I shall not drink again
 the fruit of the vine
 until the day
 when I drink it
 new in the kingdom of God."

PRECIOUS BLOOD

On this solemnity we focus our attention on the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people. Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today may we, like the psalmist, offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Lord, whose Body and Blood strengthen us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet.

St. Victor does not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, sex, or disability in the admission of students, the administration of educational policies, scholarship, and loan programs, and athletic or other school-administered programs.

St. Victor alumnus Andrew Datu '04 spoke to the student body about his experience living and working in Malawi for the Peace Corps. The students were captivated by Andrew's beautiful slideshow and his mastery of Chichewa, one of the national languages of Malawi. Andrew's Peace Corps service continues. He is currently raising funds to help his old headmaster complete the construction and furnishing of a girls' hostel. To donate and find out more, please visit www.youcaring.com/chikwawacommunitydaysecondaryschool-1084913. If you choose to donate, your generosity will help the children of Chikwawa Community Day Secondary School and help Andrew continue his mission of making a difference in the lives of others. We are so proud of you, Andrew!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The origins of today's solemnity lie in thirteenth-century Belgium. In those days, people seldom received Holy Communion, and never from the chalice. A nun in a troubled convent, Juliana of Liège, devoted her life to stirring up love for the Eucharist, lobbying for a feast day to honor the Blessed Sacrament with Masses and processions.

Juliana may have been inspired by the Ascension Day processions in nearby Bruges. Crusaders brought a treasure home to Bruges from Constantinople in 1204: a reliquary said to contain a cloth from Joseph of Arimathea with which he had helped prepare the body of Jesus for burial. The stain on the cloth was said to be the holy blood itself, and so the people of Bruges built a great basilica to house the relic. Bruges became a great center of pilgrimage because of this treasure, and the procession of the Holy Blood is still one of the greatest festivals in Belgium today. The bishop carries the relic through the narrow streets, and the people wear medieval costumes and act out scenes from the Bible.
