Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time June 5, 2016

You changed my mourning into dancing;
O LORD, my God,

— Psalm 30:12, 13

HOPE AND LIFE

Today's readings tell the story of two widows. The first reading relates the plight of the widow with whom the prophet Elijah stayed; the Gospel tells about the widow of Nain. In each story, the widow's only son had died. For people who lived in those cultures, the son was the only support of a widow, and the carrying on of the family name by the son was equal to immortality. A widow whose only son has died could lose all hope.

Elijah and Jesus are the restorers of hope; they bring the sons back to life. Saint Paul was metaphorically raised from the dead when he experienced the conversion and call from God that he describes in today's second reading.

What are Christians called to do today? We may not be able to raise the dead, but perhaps we can rekindle hope for a single parent. We may not be able to convert a persecutor like Paul, but if we speak the gospel openly and gently with our lives, we might touch a life with the Good News.

Evangelize! All of the baptized are, by definition, called to evangelize. We are called to follow Jesus by loving our neighbors enough to invite them to become members of the New Covenant family of God, the Catholic Church. We invite all in our Parish to join in the door-to-door ministry (either by direct participation and/or by prayer). Please call Trevor Burke at 408-945-1044 or Grace Valdez at 408-209-3944 to help with this endeavor.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults

Sister Sara is available for interviews with anyone interested in becoming Catholic or completing their initiation sacraments. You may inquire at any time. Unbaptized children between ages of 7-14 years old may also register for the Children's Catechumenate. If interested, please call the Parish Office for an interview (408) 251-7055.

THANK YOU FOR HELPING THE NEEDY

Through your generosity in giving to St. Victor Parish Outreach, in the month of May, we were able to help two needy families with groceries, diapers and baby formula and also assisted a family with rental help. Additionally, Outreach supported the Carmelite Monastery fundraiser, and made donations to Grail Family Service and to the Ecuador earthquake victims.

Outreach also sponsors a meal at Martha's Kitchen every last Wednesday of the month.

There are two meals served each day at the soup kitchen, and help is needed for the serving times. If you are available to volunteer for this day (the last Wednesday of the month), please contact Edita Cruz at 408-293-6111.

Martha's Kitchen is located at 311 Willow Street San Jose

Thank you for your continued support to the needy!
