Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 11, 2018

God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

— John 3:17

COMMUNAL RESPONSIBILITY

The people of God forgot the covenant and flouted God's laws. They did not listen to the prophets among them, who spoke for God in warning them. Prophets are sent from God to remind us why we are here, but they are often, even in our own time, mocked, disregarded, and mistreated rather than thanked and listened to.

The book of Chronicles tells the results of these sins: the destruction of the temple and all of Jerusalem, murder, mayhem, and finally exile to a foreign land. Why are these stories in the Bible? Just to inform us of what happened to our ancient forebears? What good would that be unless there were a message and a warning for us as well? Are we people who follow the teachings of God, who obey the words of Christ in the second covenant in his blood? Or do we continue to wreak works of darkness and violence? We are reminded by these readings that we will be judged as a people, not just as individuals.

This Weekend's Second Collection is for Catholic Relief Services

The Catholic Relief Services Collection supports Catholic organizations that carry out international relief and solidarity efforts. Programs include relief and resettlement for victims of persecution, war, and natural disasters; development projects to improve living conditions for the poor; legal and support services for poor immigrants; peace and reconciliation work for people suffering from violence; and advocacy on behalf of the powerless.

The Light is On:

God is rich in mercy. There is no darkness, sin, or burden that Christ's mercy cannot overcome. Come and experience the freedom and healing of our Lord Jesus in the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Wednesdays of Lent from 6:00—7:00 pm.

Novena mass to Our Lady of Perpetual Help follows at 7pm

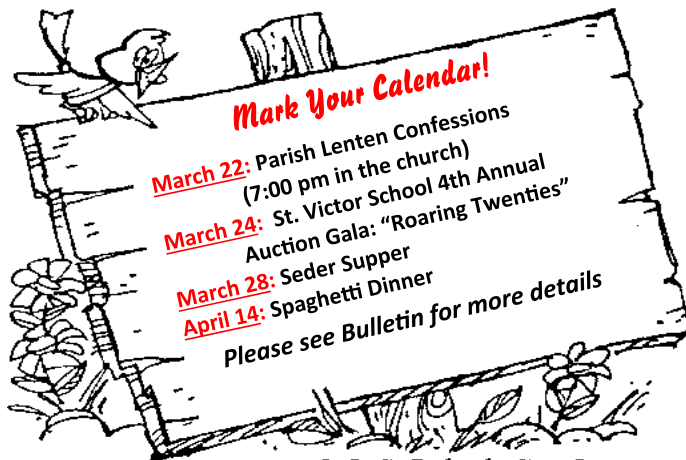

Please join us at 7:30 pm this Friday, March 16th in the church for Stations of the Cross.

A Stations of the Cross service will be held on Fridays during Lent, led by various St. Victor organizations and ministries. The March 16 service will be led by Couples for Christ.
