Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

November 13, 2016

Sing praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song.

— Psalm 98:5

GOD'S HEALING JUSTICE

An old expression holds that the sun-warmed stone heals. Perhaps. But Malachi explains that only dark, sunless days are in store for those who do not find a place for God in their lives. Conversely, he tells us that the warmth and light of God's healing justice await those who fear the Lord. That's a pretty comforting notion—especially now in the already short and growing even shorter days of November. It's the sun-warmed stone, and then some.

Paul speaks to us of justice as well, but points out that it is not a passive thing. To be treated justly, we need to do our fair share. If we are diligent and persevere we will be rewarded with and by the fruits of our labor. Lastly, Luke, too, tells us to persevere—in faith, this time—and our lives will be secure in God regardless of how we are treated by our enemies. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

This Weekend's Second Collection is for The Archdiocese for Military Services

The 2016 National Collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA will help ensure that the Archdiocese has the resources needed to provide pastoral care and the sacraments to Catholic men and women serving in the U.S. Military Academics, undergoing treatment of any of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs' Medical Centers, or working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders. The AMS collection also aids in providing priests for home dioceses as well as to replace the increasing number of military chaplains forced to retire due to age restrictions or health reasons. Thank you for your prayers and support for the mission and ministry of the AMS.

Please pray for the souls of those represented by the candles in the Sanctuary. The candles are lit in remembrance of our departed loved ones (who died this past year, and had their funeral services at St. Victor Church).

The Candles of Remembrance will be in the Sanctuary until next Sunday, November 20th. At that time, the designated families are welcome to take their loved one's candle home with them.

Please pray for the souls listed on the envelopes at our altar. Part of the joy of belonging to the Church is the privilege of helping the Holy Souls to enter heaven. The Church "commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead" (CCC 1032).

Additional envelopes are available in the pews and at the doors. You may drop your envelope off at the Parish Office or place it in the collection basket. Any listed names will be brought to the altar and will remain throughout the month of November.

November 13th is the Feast Day of Saint Nicholas the Great. Saint Nicholas earned the title "the Great" for his staunch courage and practical wisdom. To good bishops and priests, to religious lay people, he was kind and gentle and modest. To evildoers, he was terrible and stern. It is rightly said that in him God raised up a second Elijah.

This weekend's sanctuary flowers are offered by the Son Tran Family in thanksgiving for blessings received.

If you would like to donate flowers for the Altar in memory of a loved one, in thanksgiving or in celebration of a baptism, birthday, wedding or anniversary, please call Kitty Brady @ 408-259-8846 for information. Suggested donation is $125-$150.

Next Week's Second Collection is for the Campaign for Human Development

An estimated 43 million people live in poverty in the United States. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) was founded to help break the cycle of poverty by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. Many of the projects supported by CCHD embody the corporal works of mercy, including the protection of worker rights, expanding access to healthcare, and reforming the criminal justice system. With the tradition of improving education, housing situations, and community economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact in communities nationwide, fostering a culture of life and hope in communities across the nation. CCHD needs your help; your contribution will defend human dignity and reach out to those living on the margins. Twenty-five percent of funds collected remain in each diocese to support local projects. Thank you for your prayers and support of the CCHD Collection.
