Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 22, 2017

“Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God.”
— Matthew 22:21

POWER STRUGGLE

Power struggles occur on every level of society, from the world stage to relationships at work, to our own homes. We struggle for position in the hierarchy of power: Who has power over whom? How do they wield it? What is the source of that power? What is the healthy response?

In this Sunday’s Gospel reading, the Pharisees engage Jesus in a power struggle over whether Jews should show tribute to Caesar by paying taxes. Jesus’ response puts this and every struggle for power into perspective. In harmony with the words of Isaiah and Paul, Jesus teaches us that God is the ultimate source of all power—the power of earthly rulers, the Pharisees, Jesus, the Church, and the power within ourselves.

This Week’s Second Collection is for Victims of the Northern California Fires

All Souls envelopes are available on the tables at the church exits. The All Souls intentions will be celebrated throughout the month of November. Part of the joy of belonging to the Church is the privilege of helping the Holy Souls to enter heaven. The Church “commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead” (CCC 1032).

Once again, our faithful community of St. Victor truly lived out our Festival theme of “Working Together: One Family in Faith & Fun”.

I would like to thank all who volunteered their time, talent and treasure in the success of our Festival 2017. It was such a beautiful scene to see everybody working and having fun together as a community. You staffed the booths (Food/games/stockroom/money counters), grilled, cooked, entertained, and best of all, you kept your smiles!

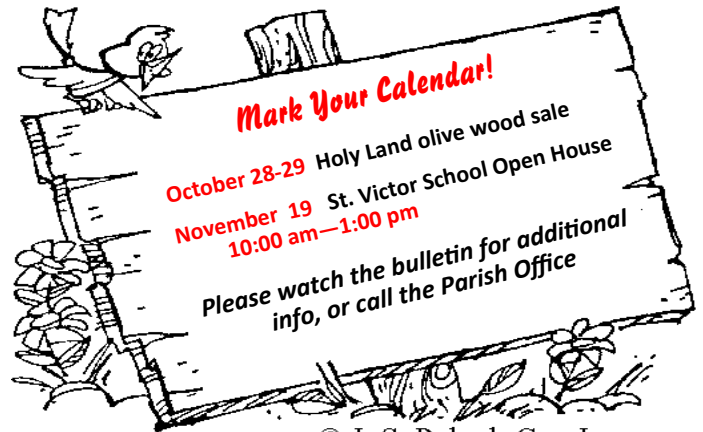

A heartfelt gratitude to Edsel & Ali Dumanig and family, for again heading this year’s festival — I can’t thank you enough for all the effort that you put forward to the success of our Festival.

As I leave for my pilgrimage on October 25, I will keep each of you in my prayers. May the weekend of fun lead us to become a stronger One Family in Christ!
Fr. Mark
