30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 23, 2016

Whether you like it or not, you will always grow apart from human beings. Christ is faithful and always with you.

-St. John of God

NO COMPARISONS

How many times have we read or heard about someone who's gotten into trouble—maybe even fired from a job—because of a brush with the law? While our "Christian" minds tell us to be sorry and even pray for the person, a little voice inside our heads may also be saying, "I'm glad I would never do anything like that."

And perhaps we wouldn't. But are there some things we do that are still not pleasing in God's eyes? Today's readings caution us not to look so intently at someone else's wrongdoing that we overlook our own weaknesses and shortcomings. When we measure ourselves against the worst people we can think of, we come out looking pretty good. There is a danger, however, in using someone else's behavior as a way of reflecting our own goodness.

THIS WEEKEND'S SECOND COLLECTION IS FOR WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Once again, our faithful community of St. Victor truly lived out our Festival theme of Working Together: One Family in Faith & Fun. Yes, "we made it through the rain!" In fact, we had double blessings this weekend - a weekend full of fun and a weekend of long-awaited rain!

I would like to thank all who volunteered their time, talent and treasure in the success of our Festival 2016. Regardless of the rain, you continued to staff the booths (food/games/stockroom/money counters), grilling, cooking, entertaining, and best of all, keeping your smiles! It was such a beautiful scene to see everybody working and having fun together as a community.

A heartfelt gratitude to Edsel & Ali Dumanig and family, for again heading this year's festival - I can't thank you enough for all the effort that you put forward to the success of this Festival.

As I leave for my pilgrimage on October 18, I will keep each of you in my prayers. Through the intercession of Mary and our Patron Saint Victor, may God continue to shower blessings upon your family and our parish family. May the weekend of fun lead us to become a stronger One Family in Christ!

We extend our warmest appreciation to the many parishioners, school parents, community members, entertainers, scouts, runners, parking patrol, and set-up and tear-down crews. We appreciate all the work of our great Festival committee and all those who stepped up and gave their time, talent, and treasure to make this event a success – before, during and after the Festival.
