Twenty-fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

September 24, 2017

Turn to the LORD for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. — Isaiah 55:7b

CALL UPON THE LORD

The very first line of today's first reading summons us to seek the Lord and to call upon God. This sentiment is echoed in the refrain for today's responsorial psalm: "The Lord is near to all who call upon him" (Psalm 145:18a). Saint Paul is the embodiment of someone who constantly sought the Lord. In the excerpt we read today from his letter to the Philippians, we find Saint Paul toward the end of his life, a life he describes as completely consonant with Christ. He writes, "For to me life is Christ" (Philippians 1:21). To find out what it means to live life completely in accord with Christ we need look no further than today's Gospel. There we find that God's love and mercy are immeasurable for all those who seek and call upon the Lord.

Help St. Victor School Grow!

Do you have a green thumb? Are you passionate about gardening? If so, the school garden needs your help. Behind the playground there is a beautiful school garden that needs some love and care. Watering, weeding, and harvesting are some of the ways you can help. If you are interested in working in the garden we would love to hear from you. Please call the school at 408-251-1740 or email Mrs. Wolf the Principal at pwolf@stvictor.org.

The school is also interested in constructing an outdoor classroom in the garden. Last year we received a grant from the Whole Kids Foundation to build an outdoor classroom. Additional funds were raised at the Annual Auction Gala. If you or someone you know is a landscape architect or works in construction and can provide their services, please ask them to call the school at 408-251-1740 or email Mrs. Wolf the Principal at pwolf@stvictor.org. You can be a part of growing St. Victor School!
