10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

He said to them in reply, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking around at those seated in the circle he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers. For whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." - Mk 3:33-35

'He has gone out of his mind'

In the gospel today we hear that Jesus made a visit home. Word about this radical teacher had gotten around and the religious leaders are not happy. In an effort to protect their son and brother, Jesus' family try to restrain him in order to protect him. The people who have gathered try to dismiss Jesus' teachings saying that he has 'gone out of his mind'. The religious leaders even go so far as to say that he is possessed by a demon! Perhaps their way of explaining away someone that they could not cope with. Who in our society today is explained away? Who do we wish would stop speaking out because it makes us uncomfortable? Who do we know who is speaking the truth and yet is dismissed by those in authority? Who tries to silence others?

One of the criticisms of Christians today is that we are not Christ-like or we are no longer challenged by the gospel message. Sometimes it is easier to 'keep your head down'. But Jesus knows that in order to bring change, to work for God's kingdom of love and justice and peace, this involves sticking your head above the parapet, whether that be in our communities, our families or in our church.

'I began to wonder if anyone still believed Jesus meant those things he said. I thought if we just stopped and asked "what if he really meant it?" it could turn the world upside down. It is a shame Christians have become so normal.'

Shane Claiborne, The Irresistible Revolution

Do not be afraid of holiness. It will take away none of your energy, vitality or joy. On the contrary, you will become what the Father had in mind when he created you, and you will be faithful to your deepest self. To depend on God sets us free from every form of enslavement and leads us to recognize our great dignity.

Do not be afraid to set your sights higher, to allow yourself to be loved and liberated by God.

Do not be afraid to let yourself be guided by the Holy Spirit. Holiness does not make you less human, since it is an encounter between your weakness and the power of God's grace. For in the words of León Bloy, when all is said and done, 'the only great tragedy in life, is not to become a saint'.

Gaudete et Exultate

Congratulations and Welcome!

Back in the morning! All going to Arnott's Exhibition—please assemble outside the Church after 10am Mass and catch the 13 bus for the city.

Anyone interested in going on Mary Brennan's day trip to Malahide Castle on Wednesday 27th June? Fare is €15 and booking can be made through the Monday Club, Noreen or Mary.

We, the Talbot Family, wish to thank all those who sympathized and supported us since the sad passing of John, on 9th May. We thank the priests, Frs. Damian, Pdraig, Des, Seamus and especially Fr. Shan who celebrated John's Memorial Service with us.. We thank all those who attended the Memorial Service, especially those who travelled long distances, those who sent Mass and Sympathy cards, those who called to our home with delicious food, flowers or just a chat. A special "thank you" to Mrs Devine and Alison for the beautiful music and singing. We appreciate all your kindness and generosity. In gratitude Mass will be offered for your intentions in the near future.

“Today through the laying on of hands and the prayer of consecration, we ordain four new permanent deacons for service in the Church of Dublin. I congratulate the candidates and I thank them on the manner in which they have prepared themselves for this ministry”.

Gerry Malone from Blessington, Don Devaney from Clondalkin, Greg Pepper from Westland Row and Noel McHugh from Castleknock, four married men who were ordained to the Permanent Diaconate in St. Mary’s Pro Cathedral in Dublin, last Saturday 2nd June, Feast of St. Killian. Our heartiest congratulations to all!

“It may be hard for an egg to turn into a bird: it would be jolly sight harder for it to learn to fly while remaining and egg. We are all like eggs at present, and we can’t go on indefinitely being just an ordinary, decent egg. We must be hatched or go bad”.

I searched for an apt quotation to go with Tommy’s photos and found the above quotation by C.S. Lewis. What do you think?

My tests are over. Eileen, my friend and I called into the church and signed a card for her brother who is doing his Junior Cert and she wanted to help. I wonder why we need tests and exams. They cause a lot of work and trouble. We kids unite and ban them. Sorry that would never work!

Can you do the quiz and the colouring opposite? Send them to us at the address on the front page or just drop them in to the sacristy, office or shop.
