*Believing all people need a Savior, we are called to PROCLAIM the Good News, and to offer a life-changing ENCOUNTER with Jesus.
As a community of His disciples, filled with the Holy Spirit and loved by our Heavenly Father, we seek to BE CHRIST in all we do.*

If we have died with Christ, we believe that we are also to live with Christ.

-Romans 6:8

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: “The most fruitful activity of the human person is to be ‘able to receive’ God.” —Fr. Jean Corbon

SCRIPTURE FOCUS: How did the Pharisees, who were God’s champions in the days of the Maccabees, become the villains who sought the death of God’s son? They were deformed by the insidious spiritual disease of pride, one of the seven deadly or capital sins.

A hundred and fifty years before Christ, they were the good guys. The Greeks were in charge and decided that, if they were to unify their kingdom politically, they needed to unify it religiously. So they imposed Greek ways on the Jews, including worshiping idols and eating pork. You can read about the Jew’s military resistance to this tyranny in the two books of Maccabees.

In these same books, you can read about the spiritual resistance of pious laymen who stood up for the Law and the traditions of the Rabbis, who sought to preserve the faith of Israel and live it with passion. The members of this renewal movement became known as the Pharisees.

Yet, obviously something went terribly wrong with God’s champions. Because just a few generations later, when the Son of God appeared in their midst, they rejected Him. How did it happen? They succumbed to an insidious disease that they didn’t even know they had.

Today, there are sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) like this. One of them, HPV, is a virus that has no symptoms at all. A woman often does not know that she has it . . . until, that is, she is diagnosed with deadly cervical cancer.

The Pharisees would have wagged their fingers at such women, as they did at the woman caught in adultery (John 8). “Serves them right—the wages of sin is death!”

Fornication and adultery are serious sins indeed. In fact, they are expressions of one of the seven capital sins—lust. Many assume that lust is considered by Christianity to be the epitome of sin, the worst possible vice. Actually, in the hierarchy (or should I say “lowerarchy”) of capital sins, the king-pin and most deadly of the seven sins is not lust but pride. Lust wrongly seeks sexual pleasure apart from love and life. Pride seeks greatness apart from God. The tricky thing is that pride can often start in the course of promoting God’s greatness.

Here’s how it works—as people begin applauding as you do God’s work, you think they are applauding for you. It’s a rather pitiful mistake really. Imagine the donkey Jesus rode into Jerusalem thinking that the crowd had turned out for him!

Such applause, however, can be addicting. The proud person ultimately will do anything to make the ovation happen and keep it going. But there can only be one star. Pride is essentially competitive. So anyone who threatens to steal the show becomes a mortal enemy. Even if he happens to be God.

The proud man does not teach to enlighten, but rather to pontificate, to impress, to appear as the authority. So the Pharisees laid heavy moral burdens upon the shoulders of the people without lifting a finger to help them (Mat 23:4). They coveted the title of “teacher” (that’s what “rabbi” means) and “father” (teachers in the ancient world were regarded as spiritual fathers), but really did not want the responsibility that these roles entailed.

When Jesus says to avoid being called teacher and father, he wasn’t talking about what sort of titles educators and parents should and shouldn’t use. He was talking about an attitude. Humble persons realize that all wisdom and teaching comes from God, even if God happens to be instructing others through their mouths. They know that the applause ultimately is for Him, and they are glad to redirect it back to Him as Mary does when she is praised by her cousin Elizabeth (Luke 1: 42-55).

We welcome anyone who is visiting our parish home and we extend a very warm welcome to those who have become a part of our parish family. We are glad you have decided to join our parish for liturgy, prayer and community gatherings.

Bulletin Prayer List: If you would like prayers said for you or for a family member who is ill or in need of prayer, please contact Ashleigh Varley at 612.824.9993 X256 or avarley@annunciationmsp.org. In order to encourage more constant and fervent prayer for those who are in need of our spiritual support, please also contact Ashleigh if you know of a person who no longer needs to be on the list.

Annunciation Partners in Prayer: If you are interested in praying for those in need OR if you have a prayer intention, please send an email to Pat Katagiri, patricia@kikuenterprises.com. She will email any new prayer requests to the prayer team in the evening of the day she receives them. Commit to saying a prayer for those in need either when you receive the email or during your daily prayer time.

If you would prefer to receive prayer requests by phone, or you have a prayer request and do not have email, or you are not already on the telephone prayer chain and want to join, you may call Mary LaFontaine at 612.827.4256, between 8:30am and 10:00am, Monday through Friday, or Sophie Prince at 612.866.5287, between 5:30pm and 6:30pm.

Pride is deadly because it is so insidious. The further the disease progresses, the blinder the victim becomes until it is nearly impossible for him to recognize his plight. The posturing of the proud is nothing more than compensation for their own insecurity. The pathetic emperor cannot see what is perfectly plain to everyone else—namely, that he has no clothes.

The humble person, on the other hand, is secure in the love of God and therefore has no need of pomp and circumstance. He is not afraid to look at his own littleness, for he clearly sees the greatness of a God who is not a competitor, but a loving Father.

—Dr. Marcellino D’Ambrosio

REMINDER—CHANGE IN SATURDAY CONFESSION TIME: The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be offered from 9:30am to 10:30am every Saturday morning. There will no longer be confessions available on Saturdays from 3:30pm to 4:30pm.

Dear Lord, We pray that the Blessed Mother wrap her mantle around your priests and, through her intercession, strengthen them for their ministry. We pray that Mary will guide your priests to follow her own words, "Do whatever He tells you" (Jn 2:5). May your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, Mary's most chaste spouse. May the Blessed Mother's own pierced heart inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. May your priests be holy, filled with the fire of your love, seeking nothing but your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

The Meal Train Ministry is comprised of a group of people who make and deliver meals to the home of a person or family during their time of need. An online collaboration site is used to organize the meal calendar and preferences around what works for the person or family receiving the meals. Let us know if you have a short-term need (due to a birth, surgery, illness, etc.) to receive meals delivered to your home, or that you know someone who does, or if you would like to become a part of the group who provides meals, please contact Nancy Hedlund at 651.216.3852 or email: nancy.hedlund@biworldwide.com. Questions? Contact Ashleigh Varley X256.

Heavenly Father, help us remember those who give of themselves to keep us safe and secure. Enkindle in our consciences a desire to serve those who serve their country selflessly. Give us the grace to aid those who have given aid and protection to us and others both here and overseas. Let us never forget the causes for which they fought or the bravery they showed on the battlefield. May we always be mindful of those who paid the price for our freedom, just as your Son gave his life to free us from the bondage of sin. Amen.

Pray for those serving our country, especially:

Pope Francis Calls Human Trafficking a Crime. How Can We Help? Pope Francis has called human trafficking a 'crime against humanity.' Faith communities can be a fundamental source of stability for trafficked persons by providing acceptance and a non-judgmental atmosphere. As Catholics, we are called to shine a light on this heinous abuse that disrespects the lives and dignity of our brothers and sisters around the world. Local Sisters from various religious communities are doing their part to support organizations such as Breaking Free in their efforts to end sex trafficking in Minnesota, especially during the time of the 2018 Super Bowl, and we can help too. Gift cards for major chain grocery stores and for personal items will be needed to provide meals, shelter, and clothing for women and girls who will be rescued from trafficking situations. Gas cards will be needed for the Breaking Free staff as they reach out to trafficking victims. Cash and check (payable to Breaking Free) donations are also needed. Gift cards and monetary donations can be:

- 1) brought to the Church or School offices or
- 2) placed in the collection basket in an envelope marked "Breaking Free."

Your generosity will help people who want to rebuild their lives.

Respect Life: For married couples considering adoption: may the Holy Spirit guide their discernment, grant them peace, and bring to fruition his holy will. We pray to the Lord.

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities: "Heavenly Father...If it be your will, bless those who are pursuing adoption,...and send them a child to love..." (2016-17 Respect Life Resource Guide)

Christmas Boutique: The Christmas Boutique and Bake Sale will be held the second weekend of December this year, December 9-10. Mark the change on your calendars. Everyone is asked to help in some way with the Christmas Boutique and Bake Sale. Now is a good time to make a craft item or, when you are shopping, to look for items that you can donate to the Boutique or Silent Auction. The Christmas Boutique is an annual Respect Life project. Proceeds are donated to a number of Respect Life organizations, including our two life care centers, Tandem and Sagrada Familia. Questions, or if you would like to help, call Helen Trepanier at 612.822.8360.

Baby Bottle Campaign: Thank you to everyone who has returned a baby bottle with money for Tandem and St. Stephen's. If you still have a baby bottle, please bring back the baby bottle with or without a donation next weekend and give it to one of the ushers. If you wish, you can write a check to Annunciation and put "baby bottles" on the memo line, put it in an envelope marked "Respect Life" and drop it off in the collection basket next weekend. Or you can drop it off at the church business office during the week. All money raised will go to our two life care centers, Tandem and Sagrada Familia. Thank you for supporting moms and babies.

The 40 Days for Life Campaign is our local campaign of the largest international prayer campaign to end abortion. This year, 40 Days for life, has been held in over 370 locations in 23 countries. As of Monday, October 23, the lives of 289 babies have been saved from abortion. Sunday is the last day of the 40 Days for Life Campaign. The closing prayer service is at 3:00pm at Planned Parenthood in Saint Paul. Please continue to pray for the closing of Planned Parenthood and for an end to abortion in our country. You can join our Respect Life Ministry as we pray weekly at the Planned Parenthood clinic at 66th Street and Lyndale at 1:00pm on Wednesdays.

We are fortunate to have a community willing to share its blessings with the greater community! To locate the collection bins, walk towards the community room from the south foyer (EAST SIDE—or ramp side). The bins are located in the north hallway of the community room—by the restrooms. Discernment and Self-honesty: Wisdom from the Benedictines—A Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary Theology Day. The practice of discernment of spirits can increase the self-honesty we need for decision making in life. Benedictine practices help us to notice and reflect on what moves within—imaginings, emotions, inclinations, desires—and then to act on that understanding. The Christian tradition of discernment of these inner movements began with the desert tradition, continued with St. Benedict and was given modern expression by St. Ignatius. The ultimate intention is to grow in loving relationship with God, others and even to self. Thursday, November, 9, check-in from 6:00pm to 6:30pm, and presentation from 6:30pm to 9:00pm, Pax Christi Church (Eden Prairie). Free event. Light refreshments are provided. Registration is required: www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, 320.363.3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.

St. Richard's Catholic Church Fall Festival (7540 Penn Ave S, Richfield): Saturday, November 11 & Sunday, November 12! Saturday afternoon activities (11:00am to 3:00pm) include family-friendly games, hammerschlagen, crafters corner, bake sale, lunch counter, Christmas store and more! Immediately after the 5:00pm Mass, there will be a spaghetti dinner, with bingo starting at 7:00pm! Come back Sunday morning for pancake breakfast (9:30am to 12:30pm) and a continuation of the silent auction and raffle. Find more details at www.strichards.com/fallfestival.

Twin Cities Ignatian Associates Advent Retreat: Lumen Christi (St Paul) Saturday, November 18, 9:00am to 3:00pm. God's Gift to the World with Father Kevin Schneider, SJ. Often we think of Advent as a time full of preparation and projects. This day will provide an opportunity to notice the presence of God in this season as well. Three presentations will be offered: The reflection on Grace, The reflection on the Incarnation and The reflection on the Christmas season and beyond. Advance registration: $30. Registration at the door: $35. The cost includes continental breakfast, lunch and refreshments. Questions: call 612.998.7574, or email rosedoherty44@gmail.com.

Holy Hours for Vocations: Tuesday, November 14, 7:00pm to 8:00pm, Church of St. Timothy (Maple Lake). All people of the Archdiocese are invited to participate in the Holy Hours for Vocations, a new program sponsored by the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. This year's seminarian posters show the calendar of the Holy Hours for Vocations that will be taking place on the second Tuesday of each month, starting November 14. Each month, the Holy Hour for Vocations will take place at a different parish in the Archdiocese. Come spend an hour with Jesus each month to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, consecrated life and diaconate. For more information, please contact the Office of Vocations at 651.962.6890 or visit www.10000vocations.org.

Called and Gifted™ Workshop: Friday, November 17, 7:00pm to 9:30pm through Saturday, November 18, 9:00am to 4:00pm, Church of St. Michael (Stillwater). Explore the ancient teaching of the Church on how the gifts (or charisms) of the Holy Spirit work in our life and in the life of your parish. During this two-day workshop, you will learn the signs and characteristics of the most common charisms of the Holy Spirit. Cost: $80 per person. Includes: materials, refreshments, and follow-up personal discernment guidance. Find more details and register at www.archspm.org/CG2017. Questions? Contact Patrick Conley at 651.357.1340 or pconley@cathedralsaintpaul.org.

Man, Woman and the Order of Creation: Monday, December 11, 9:00am to 5:00pm, University of St. Thomas. This one-day symposium will explore the Catholic vision of the human person within its theological, scientific and social context. The goal of this conference is to equip clergy, religious, pastoral ministers and lay leaders with the pastoral insights and language they need to reach out to those they serve—in love and in truth. Registration will open soon. For more information, contact: Dr. Deborah Savage: 651.962.5061 or pdsavage@stthomas.edu.

LIVE THE LITURGY—INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK: It is so easy to cast judgment upon the thoughts and behaviors of others. We have heard the phrase, "Practice what you preach." If we really believe in Jesus we will put great effort and care into following his example and living his message. Humility is our goal. True humility begins when I see myself as one among many wounded, searching souls who are striving to work out a place in life and discover who God is and how God acts. We are here today because we need to taste and feel the God who reveals himself fully in the Eucharist—the God who is our strength, hope, and salvation. We are not here because we are better or wiser than anyone else for we are simply humble sinners in need of mercy.
