3rd Sunday
IN ORDINARY TIME

Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:20

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Believing all people need a Savior, we are called to PROCLAIM the Good News, and to offer a life-changing ENCOUNTER with Jesus. As a community of His disciples, filled with the Holy Spirit and loved by our Heavenly Father, we seek to BE CHRIST in all we do.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: “What good would life have been to us, had Christ not come as our Redeemer?”

SCRIPTURE FOCUS: There is a cost of discipleship—Jesus sometimes calls us to leave behind professions, friends, even family. Does that mean that work and human relationships are at odds with growing in our relationship with God? The concept of detachment can help us understand this problem.

Peter and Andrew were businessmen. So were their neighbors, James and John. They tried to wring a living out of the Sea of Galilee, and it probably took nearly all of the time and energy that they had. So it would have been easy to pass on the chance to hear some new prophet proclaim that the Kingdom of God had finally arrived. And then, having heard this message, they could have rolled their eyes and chuckled about how they hoped that this Kingdom would put more fish in the lake. Or they could have made excuses that this was all very interesting, but following the wandering rabbi from Nazareth was more suitable for single men with no mouths to feed.

No, when Jesus invited them to become his disciples and learn to catch men instead of fish, they dropped their nets, abandoned their business, and went on the road. Is it wrong to have a family? Is it wrong to be in business? Are these secular activities inappropriate for a disciple of Jesus?

Not in the least. The Church teaches that we can serve the Lord and grow in holiness through any honest task, whether we be single or married. But St. Paul also tells us that the Christian engaged in secular activities must inwardly detach themselves from these pursuits and relationships: “those who have wives should live as though they have none . . . buyers should conduct themselves as if they owned nothing, and those who make use of the world as though they were not using it, for the world as we know it is passing away.” (1 Cor. 7:29-31)

This also illuminates what Jesus means by some very tough words: “Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me” (Mat. 10:37). Yes, there is a cost to discipleship. An intimate relationship with God in Jesus Christ is a pure gift of grace. But grace, as pastor Dietrich Bonhoeffer reminds us, doesn’t come cheap.

The word “secular” means “of this world.” Now it is true that God likes this world. After all, he created it. But when sinful humanity gets a hold of the things of this passing world, it doesn’t want to let go. It becomes engrossed, absorbed, consumed with it to the neglect of what lasts forever, namely the Kingdom of God.

In Jesus, the Kingdom has touched down on planet earth. We need to re-form our lives, which is not only to say repent from sin, but actually structure our lives totally around the kingdom and its priorities. Kingdom priorities might dictate that some enter into the sacrament of matrimony in order to raise up new heralds of the kingdom and leaders of God’s people. And Christ may call others to involve themselves in business so as to provide financially for God’s work and to infuse Christian values into the marketplace.

Detachment does not mean that you shouldn’t enjoy your secular pursuits and approach them with energy and enthusiasm. It just means that your possessions, your relationships and all your daily activities must be placed on the altar, offered up to God as a living sacrifice. And you must be ever ready to walk away from everything at a moment’s notice, should Jesus call you to do so. Moments of truth will come to test just how serious we are about living for God rather than for sports, careers and even families.

Yes, families. There are times when duty calls soldiers to leave their families. The same holds true for breadwinners—my great-grandfather left family behind in Italy for several years while he prepared a better place for them in America. So why should we be surprised that, at times, some may be called to leave family for the sake of the Kingdom of God?

Dear God, Death, as much as birth, is a part of the cycle of life. Hear our prayers for those who have died: those who have died suddenly; people who have been victims of violence or war; men, women, and children who have died because of disease, famine, or neglect; and especially our dear departed loved ones. Give us comfort in our grief, and hope in your eternal love. May all those who have served you on earth share in the fullness of joy in your heavenly kingdom. Bring us all to the glory of the resurrection. Amen.

Please keep in your prayers the following individuals of the parish community who are ill:

Karin Alaniz
Dorothy Audette
Jocelyn Broitman
Stewart Christie
Lisa Adams Craig
Deacon Sean Curtan
Michele Davis
Ann Durr
Gary Hackenmueller

Bulletin Prayer List: If you would like prayers said for you or for a family member who is ill or in need of prayer, please contact Ashleigh Varley at 612.824.9993 X256 or avarley@annunciationmsp.org. In order to encourage more constant and fervent prayer for those who are in need of our spiritual support, please also contact Ashleigh if you know of a person who no longer needs to be on the list.

We may not be called literally to leave all behind to walk the dusty trails of Israel. But there will come a moment when we may hear an invitation to decline a scholarship, or a promotion, or a romance for the sake of the Kingdom. As the gospel story unfolds, we learn that the apostles have more than a few shortcomings. But we have to admit this—that when that initial call came, as challenging as it was, they made no excuses. Can the same be said for us? —Dr. Marcellino D’Ambrosio

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL (CSAF): If you have not yet given your gift in support of the 18 Collective Ministries of this Archdiocese to the Catholic Services Appeal, please prayerfully consider God’s gifts in your life and consider making a pledge. Every gift is important and helps to strengthen our Catholic family and this Archdiocese. Visit the CSAF’s website at www.csafspm.org to learn more.

ANNUNCIATION AWAKENING RETREAT: For those who have not been before, I invite you to join us on our biannual retreat called the “Annunciation Awakening Retreat” on the weekend of March 16—18. The retreat will be held at Dunrovin Retreat Center, which is located on 50 secluded acres of national park in Marine on St. Croix, MN. At the retreat you will learn more about God the Father’s tremendous love for you and have the opportunity to establish and deepen your personal relationship with Christ.

The Retreat will include: Mass, Confession opportunities, Eucharistic Adoration, Communal Prayer Times, Music, Talks by Father Park, Small Groups/Fellowship, and time for silence and rest. You can sign up for the Awakening Retreat through our parish website: www.annunciationmsp.org/church/

HOLY LAND PILGRIMAGE: A year from now, I am teaming up with Fr. Kevin Finnegan, the pastor of Our Lady of Grace in Edina, to lead a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. The dates for the trip are from Monday, December 31, 2018 to Friday, January 11, 2019. We will have more details in the next month or so (like the exact cost), but if you are interested in going, send me an email at frpark@annunciationmsp.org and I can give you an estimated cost per person and answer any initial questions you may have. I spent three weeks in the Holy Land when I was in seminary, and to be in the places where Jesus was born, lived, worked, prayed, ministered, suffered, died, and rose from the dead was one of the greatest blessings of my life. I invite you to come and experience this for yourself!

Are you ill? Do you suffer from a chronic condition? Do you work in healthcare perhaps as a therapist, radiologist, physical therapist, nurse, etc? Or are you a caregiver for a family member or friend? You, and the general public, are most welcome to join Archbishop Bernard Hebda on Saturday, February 10, for Mass at 10:00am for the 26th World Day of the Sick, at St. Joseph’s Catholic Church in West Saint Paul. This annual Mass reminds us to pray and honor those who are sick, those who work in health care and those who serve as caregivers. Special blessings with water from Lourdes will be available. Following Mass there will be a reception and a talk by Fr. Altier. Anyone who is ill, caregivers, health care workers and the general public are most welcome. Questions? Email curatioevent@gmail.com or call Teresa at 651.373.5369. If you are not able to join us in person, we will keep you and your family in our prayers on this special day. Co-sponsored by Curatio and Order of Malta.

Annunciation Partners in Prayer: If you are interested in praying for those in need OR if you have a prayer intention, please send an email to Pat Katagiri, patricia@kikuenterprises.com. She will email any new prayer requests to the prayer team in the evening of the day she receives them. Commit to saying a prayer for those in need either when you receive the email or during your daily prayer time.

If you would prefer to receive prayer requests by phone, or you have a prayer request and do not have email, or you are not already on the telephone prayer chain and want to join, you may call Mary LaFontaine at 612.827.4256, between 8:30am and 10:00am, Monday through Friday, or Sophie Prince at 612.866.5287, between 5:30pm and 6:30pm.

God, you knock upon the door of everyone's heart. We seek the courage to open that door, for we know the responsibility of saying yes. We humbly ask you for wisdom to serve your Church with compassion and acceptance. We believe that when we say yes, you will provide the grace for the work ahead. Give grace to those men and women who have dedicated their lives to constant service to your Church. Also, give grace to those couples and single men and women who work for the Church in their secular lives. We ask all this through Christ our Lord and Brother, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Next month, we hope to open a Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration chapel here at Annunciation. In preparation, there will be a weekly series to help our parish community engage in this process.

Countdown to Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration Beginning Wednesday, February 14

Our Special Guest: Fr. Victor Warkulwiz, M.S.S., from the Missionary Priests of the Blessed Sacrament, is our guest homilist at all the Masses this weekend of Saturday, January 20 and Sunday, January 21. He will preach on the benefits and necessity of Perpetual Adoration in our parish. Fr. Warkulwiz resides in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. He has taken his message of Perpetual Adoration to several hundred parishes in 48 states, Canada, and elsewhere. Fr. Victor has dedicated himself to visiting a parish every weekend where the desire to establish or maintain Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration has been expressed. The fruits of his labor have been bountiful and include a spiritual renewal within each parish.

Please remember that Perpetual Adoration in a parish is not just for a day, a week, a month, or year. It is for always. It is not temporary, but ongoing, lasting, permanent.

Saint John Paul II said: "Our essential commitment in life is to grow spiritually in the climate of the Holy Eucharist." There is no greater love given to Catholics than Christ present in the Eucharist.

Please do not miss hearing Fr. Warkulwiz. His homily is most inspiring and has touched the hearts of thousands of Catholics in bringing them to a deeper understanding and love of the Blessed Sacrament.

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive honor, glory, and praise..."

Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, please grant Annunciation Church the grace of perpetual adoration.

January is Human Trafficking Awareness Month: A common understanding (or misunderstanding?) we may have of slavery is that it came to an end at the close of the Civil War back in the 1800's. Unfortunately, in our day slavery is a real business that thrives in the US and around the world. In fact, human trafficking is the world's second largest criminal industry, with the illicit drugs industry as the largest. Breaking Free is a local organization that provides a full range of support services needed by women who have managed to escape sex trafficking here in the Twin Cities area. In preparation for the anticipated increase in sex trafficking that unfortunately seems to accompany major events such as the Super Bowl, the goal of Breaking Free is to provide immediate and safe shelter along with food and clothing to those they anticipate will be rescued during this time. Your donations of grocery gift cards and gas cards, along with monetary donations needed to help finance these outreach efforts, can be placed in the Mass collection or brought to our business office. Be sure to write "Breaking Free" on your envelope. Checks can be made payable to Annunciation with "Breaking Free" noted on the memo line. Thank you for your generosity!

Save the Date: Lenten Morning of Reflection with Fr. Kevin Finnegan Saturday, March 3, 8:30am to 12:30pm, at Annunciation. This event will include a light breakfast, a Lenten Reflection, Mass, opportunity for Reconciliation, and lunch. Registration information and further details to follow.

Stay Connected Through Facebook: Do you like to be informed as to what is going on in the parish? Would you like to be updated on events that are hosted at Annunciation? Would you like another opportunity to get to know your fellow parishioners better? Did you answer yes to these questions? Then please like us on Facebook. This is a great way to communicate with the community! It is quick, inexpensive and engaging. The easiest way to find our Facebook page is to click on the link on the church website at www.annunciationmsp.org.

Respect Life: For public servants: may God grant them the humility, wisdom, and courage to defend all human life. We pray to the Lord.

9 Days for Life is from January 18-26. 9 Days for Life is a "digital pilgrimage" of prayer and action focused on cherishing the gift of every person's life. Your prayers matter and your sacrifices make a difference.

Prayer Service for Life—Monday, January 22: On this 45th commemoration of the tragic Roe v. Wade decision, come to the annual Prayer Service for Life at 10:30am with Archbishop Hebda at the Cathedral of St. Paul (239 Selby Ave). The MCCL rally at the Capitol will follow the prayer service. Catch our bus at Annunciation at 9:15am, or catch the bus at St. Peter's in Richfield at 9:30am and go to the Prayer Service for Life. We will return to St. Peter's and Annunciation after the Prayer Service for Life. See www.archspm.org/events for more details.

Sanctity of Human Life Prayer of Lament:

God of heaven and earth, you create every human life in your image. You knit us with care and sustain us each day. You shower us with gifts and look on us with pride. You alone are the source of every good thing. You are our strength, our courage, and our hope. Lord, we lament for a world that does not recognize the value of every life, whether born or preborn. We cry out to you on behalf of the lives lost each day through abortion. We grieve with those who grieve the loss of children and grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Lord, we lift up in prayer to you those who need you most. For those, even Christians, who believe the lie of culture that life is only as valuable as its capabilities or resources, we ask for you to soften hearts and reveal your truth. For the many, many women who want to keep their unborn children but cannot see any possible options for doing so, we pray for support, encouragement, and for sisters and brothers in Christ to rise up and meet their needs. For women who are told lies about the impact that choosing abortion will have, and for women who are told they have no choice, Lord, we ask for clarity and courage. For men who will never know or hold their child, and are left to wonder "what if," we pray for comfort and strength. For women whose bodies have been damaged, some even to the point of death, by an abortion, Lord, we pray for healing. For countries where policies restrict the number of children that can be born or devalue the lives of women to the point that abortion is forced upon them, particularly when they are carrying a daughter, we pray for your hand to change unjust laws, to protect women at risk, and to raise up a generation that will call on your name. Surely, your arm is not too short to save! Lord, forgive us for being parts of nations whose policies promote access to abortion more readily than access to food for children living in poverty. Open our eyes to recognize your face in the most vulnerable and to offer the gifts you have freely given us to them with ready and generous hearts. Mighty God, we cling to your promises—for justice to be fulfilled, for your grace to be made known, and for your peace to rule in hearts and minds and lives. Help us to live out the vision you have given us for life in this world. Give us the will and the courage to put the lives of others before our own and to advocate on their behalf, to sacrifice where necessary and to serve where needed. Lord, you are ever-faithful. Make us faithful in our service to you. Amen.

Marriage and Divorce—Insights into the Tradition—A Saint John's School of Theology and Seminary Theology Day:

For some in the Church, living out the sacrament of marriage has proven to be a challenge. The reasons for this vary, but oftentimes when such an occurrence takes place, many couples resort only to filing for a legal civil divorce to receive necessary legal protection. The Church understands this need yet, at the same time, She has her own way of handling the dissolution of the marriage sacrament—the annulment process. Either way, this kind of journey almost always involves feelings of hurt, regret, betrayal and, perhaps, even a deep sense of disconnect with the Church and her teachings on marriage, divorce, and remarriage. Join us for a grace-filled conversation as we first explore the dimensions of the marriage sacrament and the purpose of the annulment process. This session also has a second aim, and that is to name the real-life struggles that can exist within a marriage and why we need to examine the way we think and speak about this sacrament. In addition, we will discern ways we as a church community can and should (better) walk alongside those experiencing marital stress and the impending reality of divorce. Thursday, February 1, check-in from 6:00pm to 6:30pm and presentation from 6:30pm to 9:00pm, Saint Joseph the Worker Church (Maple Grove). Free event. Light refreshments provided. Registration is required: www.collegevilleMN.com/theologyday, 320.363.3560 or theologyday@csbsju.edu.

2018 WINE (Women In the New Evangelization) Catholic Women's Conference: women of all ages and stages are invited to the conference on Saturday, February 10, at Mary, Mother of the Church (Burnsville). The theme, Hope: An Anchor for the Soul, is inspired by Saint Philomena's example and Pope Francis' invitation to fight against enemies of hope (like discouragement and negativity) in order to shine as beacons of hope to those we encounter. The day includes inspirational talks, music, lunch, prayer, shopping, confession, chocolate, and more. This conference is the perfect way to prepare for Lent, which begins the week after the conference. Registration is $65. For more information and to register, visit www.CatholicVineyard.com and select the EVENTS tab.

Women's Discernment Retreat with Bishop Cozzens: Saturday, February 17, 8:00am to 3:30pm, Maternity of Mary Catholic Church (St. Paul). Join us to gain a deeper understanding of consecrated life! Bishop Andrew Cozzens will celebrate Mass and speak on consecrated life. The retreat is for single Catholic women, ages 16 to 35. The retreat day will include consecrated women sharing their vocation stories, along with many opportunities for discerning women to chat and ask questions. Discover the steps of discernment, learn more about yourself, and listen to God speak to your heart. Retreat fee is $20. Scholarships are available, if needed. Register online by Friday, February 9 at www.10000vocations.org.

LIVE THE LITURGY—INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK: Jesus proclaims today the Gospel of God: "This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the Gospel." Jesus challenges us to accept a change of heart, to start believing and thinking differently. The Gospel asks us to take the focus off ourselves and away from self-concern, and place it on our brothers and sisters, especially those most broken and in need, and on our environment. We are called to be stewards of all God has created. This means that we are also called to work on God's behalf ensuring that all that God created and all who God created is cared for and protected.

Early Catholic Family Life (ECFL), Sunday, January 28,

11:15am to 1:00pm: Are you a family that has any young children under the age of five? Since we're at the beginning of a brand new year, we'd like to look at some of the practices that God might be inviting you as a family to include in daily life to help you experience the closeness of God's love in a new and wonderful way. Each time we meet for ECFL we have activities for families to enjoy together as well as a time for parents to meet together and talk about some steps they can take to nourish their faith life and friendship with God. Please feel free to join us for a session to see if ECFL is something that your family would like to take part in. For further information contact Sr. Sue X251.
