The 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes." Those gathered in the synagogue where Jesus taught had never heard anything like this before. They were used to the preaching of the well-educated scribes, but Jesus possessed something that those men lacked: authority. Instead of merely interpreting the laws of the prophets, Jesus presented a new vision, indeed, he shared the good news of the Gospel with his listeners.

We do not have the opportunity to stand in the presence of Jesus in the same way that those first-century Jews did, but nonetheless we can also stand in awe of his authority. His teachings are available to us through the sacred Scriptures that the Church has preserved and through the sacred tradition that the Church carries on. And in a special way, Christ's authority continues to inspire and guide us through the ministries of the papacy, episcopacy, and priesthood that Jesus established on our behalf while he was yet on earth.

As Catholics, we have a special share in the astonishing authority of Jesus through the hierarchy of the Church. Although this structure is often misunderstood or misinterpreted, it is actually an authority rooted in service and modeled after Christ who told his apostles, "The greatest among you must be your servant" (Mt 23:11).

This humble exercise of authority is contrary to the worldly search for power. And whenever we find ourselves in a position of authority, we too should strive to lead and direct others in the true spirit of Christian love and service. Chances are, if we truly imitate Christ in this way, people will be astonished at what they see.

All were amazed and asked one another, "What is this? A new teaching with authority. He commands even the unclean spirits and they obey him." His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee. - Mk 1:27-28

SAINT ROSE MISSION STATEMENT

Through the love and grace of Jesus Christ, we, the people of Saint Rose Parish, are to encourage participation in the celebration of our Catholic Faith, to nurture and teach ourselves, and our children, to proclaim the Gospel values of Christ and His Church, and to open our hearts and respond to the needs of those in and beyond our parish community through worship and service.

The hype following the Vikings "miracle win" over the Saints up to the opening of last Sunday's game against Philadelphia was incredible. It actually had nothing to do with the Eagles. It was all about keeping the miracle alive and making history by being the first team to play a Super bowl in their own home stadium. It was so infectious that Father Jim started the Skol chant at the end of Mass Sunday morning and I led it in the Gathering Area at Corpus Christi. As I parked the car at Corpus for the 6pm Mass, the Vikings were ahead 7-0, had stopped the Eagles on a three and out, and had the ball back. All was well. In fact, the interest was so great that, including me, the scheduled lector, Mass Coordinator, and musicians, there were at total of 59 people at the 6pm Mass! By the end of Mass the story had changed. The Eagles were ahead 24-7, and it only got worse from there. The euphoria of the dream season ending in a hometown Super Bowl was fun while it lasted. It gave us an escape which matched the bright sunny days and helped us forget that it was so bitter cold. That made the final result of last Sunday's game so crushing that it pushed the things of real importance off the front page - things like the winter storm which could be life-threatening in many ways and especially to the homeless, and the fact that the government had shut down due to the lack of a budget which was supposed to be in place last October.

Happily, our lives are not defined by one sports team, by their success or lack thereof. So now it is back to the moments of each day, to the regular little joys and successes and all the everyday things we need to accomplish. And, by the way, even though the Vikings are not in it, the Super Bowl is still coming to town. Something tells me, however, that because the Vikings are not in it, there may be at least a few more people at the 6pm Mass at Corpus Christi next weekend, although one of them will not be me.

Last January, 2017, was typically busy with the wrap-up of the Christmas season, the Epiphany Pageant at Corpus Christi and the School Epiphany Mass, First Reconciliation on consecutive Saturdays at each parish, and the Catholic Schools Week Sunday Mass. My extended Brady family decided to take a week together in the warm Caribbean weather of Cozumel but I could not be gone either weekend. In order to get any winter break at all, I flew down on Monday and came back on Friday, giving me three full and two half days of a delightful, necessary, and appreciated break. This year the whole family is not planning to repeat, but a few of us made plans for the Super Bowl - to be out of town! We are leaving Monday morning and flying to Fort Lauderdale to board the Royal Princess for a 10 day Caribbean Cruise. So as the first of the one million visitors are arriving for the Super Bowl festivities we will be leaving, and as they are leaving on Thursday, February 9, we will be arriving home. (And none of us are renting out our homes. We want to find them here and good shape when we return.) While I am away, as usual, my emergency phone which serves both parishes will go directly to Marie Winn, our Pastoral Associate. She will forward any necessary information to Father Jim, Amy our Pastoral Minister, or Toni, the Pastoral Minister at Corpus Christi. Next weekend Father Jim will have the Masses at Corpus Christi, and Father Tom Hunstiger will be at Saint Rose to bring you up to date with one of our familiar outreach ministries, Cross Catholic Outreach. At some point on Saturday or Sunday I will celebrate Mass with at least our little group, or perhaps with anyone else on the ship if I am given permission to do so. I have done this many times in the past and it is always a great way to meet new people. On Sunday evening, we will be watching the Super Bowl as we sail from Bonaire to Aruba.

Finally, one of the concerns of hosting the Super Bowl is the effect it has on some of the important ministries that serve the homeless and hungry. We will participate in that effort with the annual Souper Sunday collection of groceries and donations. Our Confirmation Candidates will be at the doors after Mass with soup kettles. Please be generous.

God Love You!
Fr Fitz

Bring Back Palms -- Ash Wednesday is coming on February 14. Bring back your old palms from last year and we will use them for Ashes for this year. Please remove all staples, rubber bands and paper clips to make them easier for burning. Collection boxes are at the Church doors.

“Souper Bowl of Caring” 2018

The Saint Rose Confirmation Candidates are on a mission to fight hunger and poverty in our community. In addition to the regular First Sunday Food Shelf Collection, during Super Bowl Weekend, February 3-4, they will be holding soup pots at the church doors after all the Masses to collect money for those who are hungry and hurting in our community.

All of the money collected will be given to local charities selected by our Confirmation Candidates, and our regular food donations will be given to the food shelf. Please support the Confirmation Candidates as they join young people in churches across America in an effort to care for their neighbors in need.

Food Collection Next Weekend!

Next weekend is our first-Sunday-of-the-month food collection for Keystone Community Services at all Masses. As you come in from the parking lot you are invited to drop off your gift of food in the alcoves on either side of the worship area.

Each family coming to the food shelf is allowed 15 pounds per family member. What they receive is determined by the total weight of a recipient's selections. Therefore, in some instances, smaller sizes are better.

Cash & check donations also accepted. Make checks to Saint Rose. Place in your regular Sunday envelope and mark the Food Shelf line with the amount. Donations can also be given on the donation page of the parish website

Rose Garden - We Have a Chairperson!

Mark your calendars and plan to join us for the 2018 Rose Garden Dinner and Auction. This year's event will once again be held at Midland Hills Country Club. Join friends and meet new ones during the social hour, silent auction, and dinner. The planning begins now, so how about you? Interested? Contact Alisha Coury, Auction Chairperson, at AASTEVENSON@COMCAST.NET or 763-242-5193 or John Adams AT JADAMS@SAINTROSEOFLIMA.NET or 651-357-1204. Thanks to Alisha for volunteering to chair this important fundraising event.

Volunteer Position

Our Parish Administrative Assistant, Elvira is looking for a volunteer to cover her lunch on Thursdays, 12-12:30pm, by answering phones and taking messages. If you are interested, please call the parish office at 651-645-9389.

We Welcome Children at Mass

Parents guide first steps in faith by bringing little ones to Mass, where the sights and sounds become part of a growing sense of the world. Families are encouraged to sit together in the congregation. Here's some additional tips:

- If little ones become restless, walk them along the perimeter of the church.
- Need more of a brief time out? The Cry Room is located off the narthex.
- Feel free to rejoin us in church when things have settled down!
- Quiet Bags containing a small stuffed toy and a book are located in The Cry Room. Choose one before Mass, use it in church, and return it before you leave for home!

One final reminder, please accompany children when they have to use the bathroom. Unfortunately, not everyone comes to a church to pray!

Have Trouble Hearing in Church?

Hearing devices with a receiver, earpiece and freshly charged battery are available at the church side entrances. They pick up a signal directly from the church sound system. The ear piece sits gently over (not in) the ear. You control the volume.

Please clean the earpiece and place the unit back in the charger after Mass.

Hospitalized? Going to a Care Center?

Communion is available for Catholics in many hospitals and care centers. Just ask a nurse. They can help arrange for you to attend Catholic services on-site or receive Communion in your room. Call the Parish Center and let us know where you are, too. We'll keep you in our prayers! (Privacy laws do not permit hospitals and care centers to call us with information about you.)

BOOK CLUB

Fr Jim's Book Club

Fr. Jim's Book Club on Fr. Richard Rohr's book, "Divine Dance" began last Monday. Twelve interested folks came Monday morning at Corpus Christi, from 8:45 to 10am and met in the lower level of the Parish Center. The planned Monday evening from 6:30 to 8pm in the Saint Rose Parish Center was postponed to Thursday because of the snow storm, and plans to be back on Monday this week. The Book Club will continue on Mondays through February 26. You are welcome to join us.

"Divine Dance" is available at Barnes & Noble in Har Mar..

FAITH FORMATION

A Prayer For Our Young Ones

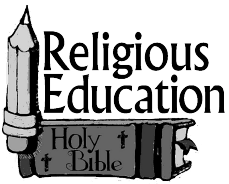

Second Graders celebrated their first Reconciliation on Saturday morning. With the help of their parents, teachers, and staff they prepared their minds and hearts for this sacrament of loving forgiveness.

We are proud of their efforts to embrace Reconciliation and a life in Christ.

Please pray for these young boys and girls; they are our future in the Christian Community.

Celebrating Our Catholic Formation

Saint Rose Religious Education students will celebrate their Catholic Faith Formation on Wednesday evening with special classroom activities, treats and prizes. It is a time to rejoice in having access to, and a place in, God's assembly.

Daytime Volunteers Needed for the Keystone Rice Street Food Shelf

Saint Rose food shelf volunteers recently received another heartfelt thank you from Keystone Community Services for our valuable staffing during Tuesday evenings. Basic Needs Program Manager, Theresa Heiland, said that because of our dedication, Roseville is the only food shelf under the Keystone banner that provides evening services.

In fact, she asked if we could announce day time openings that also need to be filled at their Rice Street Shelf. If you are interested in working at a food shelf during the day, there are assignments open on Thursday and Friday mornings and Thursday afternoons.

Call Theresa at 651-487-2792 ext 3; or email her at THEILAND@KEYSTONESERVICES.ORG. Thank You!

Thoughts & Prayers
