4th Sunday of Lent—Rice Bowl

We encounter Andrise, a teacher in Haiti who knows the importance of forming young people who will give back to the community— and their country. Reflect on the role teachers have played in bringing you closer to God and your community. How can you support those, worldwide, who are forced to flee their homes to find safety or better opportunities?

Cemetery Clean up: Time to take the Autumn and Christmas flowers off the grave sites and get ready for Easter.

New live drama on the First African-American priest coming to Diocese: The Diocese of Fort Wayne South Bend has announced upcoming performance dates for "Tolton: From Slave to Priest," a live, theatrical one-man drama performed by actor Jim Coleman and directed by Leonardo Defilippis of Saint Luke Productions. Public performances will take place on Tuesday, April 24, at 7pm at Saint Joseph High School, South Bend, and Thursday, April 26, at 7pm at Bishop Luers High School, Fort Wayne. Admission will be $5 for individuals and $20 for families of four or more. The productions runs 75 minutes and is suitable for middle school-age children and up. Tickets can be purchased online at www.diocesefwsb.org/tolon or by calling 260-399-1448.

Chrism Mass 2018: The annual Chrism Masses will be held at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Fort Wayne, on Tuesday, March 27, at 7:30pm. Bishop Kevin Rhoades has invited all priests, sisters, brothers, deacons and lay people of the Diocese to attend this Mass. An interpreter will be present for those who are hearing impaired or deaf. At the Chrism Mass, the Holy Chrism is consecrated and the Oil of Catechumens and Oil of the Sick are blessed. This beautiful Mass manifests the communion of the priests with their bishop in the same priesthood and ministry of Christ.
