Letter from Most Reverend Kevin C. Rhoades:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Pope Francis once remarked that the Church is “a mother who has at heart the good of her children.” This motherly love of the Church takes many forms, but it shines forth in a special way through the works of mercy which are the hallmark of Catholic Charities.

Next weekend, May 12 & 13, we will have an opportunity to share in the motherly love of the Church by supporting the traditional Mothers’ Day collection for Catholic Charities. The money received in this collection will be used to help those who are in need right here in our own diocese. Through our food pantry, job training and housing assistance for refugees, mentoring programs for at-risk teens, mental health counseling, support for those experiencing an unexpected pregnancy, assistance for those who wish to build their family through adoption, and help for older men and women in finding enriching volunteer work or employment, Catholic Charities strives to serve the well-being of our brothers and sisters in need. In honor of Mary, Mother of the Church, who always has at heart the good of her children, I ask you to be as generous as you can with this collection.

Sincerely yours in Christ, Most Reverend Keven C.. Rhoades—Bishop of Fort Wayne-South Bend

Growing in Faith

Feasts & Celebrations

Why are Christians asked to evangelize?

Before Jesus ascended to Heaven, He instructed His disciples, “Go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel to every creature” (Mark 16:15).

The Gospel, or “good news,” to which Jesus referred is His Resurrection and victory over death. God became man and died for our sins, then rose from the dead.

Thanks to Jesus, we have hope for a new life on earth and eternal life in Heaven if we follow Him. “There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved” (Acts 4:12).

Think of it another way: If you discovered a way to eliminate hunger in the world or found a medicine to cure all diseases, you would want to share what you know with everyone who will listen. Jesus’ death and Resurrection offers something more amazing: eternal life. Once we have heard and believe the Good News, we can’t keep it to ourselves. We must tell everyone about it.
