The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ
June 22, 2014
Not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth
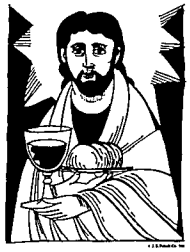
from the mouth of the LORD.
—Deuteronomy 8:3b

AMEN… Take a look around the walls of your church. Even if it's only a year or two old, the word "Amen" has resounded off those walls countless times at the conclusion of the Eucharistic Prayer and as the faithful have come forward to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Today's feast is about those "Amens" offered in faith, offered in times of trouble or doubt, spoken in joy, spoken mindlessly, but all given to God in a multitude of ways. It is our very lives that lie behind our "Amens" and are touched by the presence of Christ, the presence we celebrate today. More importantly, we celebrate the love of Christ for us shown in the sacrifice on Calvary and that he continues to give to us in every celebration of the Eucharist. What can we do but rejoice in that great love, and then go out into the world and live that love in sacrificing for others? Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION… Ordinary Time beckons, and so on this Sunday we surrender the last glimmers of paschal joy as we celebrate the renewal of our life around the table of the Eucharist. This feast reminds us that the goal of the catechumen's journey through Lent is not the baptismal font at Easter, but rather the experience of Pentecost. It is all about life lived in the Spirit's embrace in relationship to the Body of Christ, which is found both "on the table" and "at the table." The season of confirmation is also drawing to a close, and this feast serves as a reminder that this sacrament, a solemn sending from font to table, is keyed to renewed vigor. Confirmation has sometimes been sadly misunderstood as a kind of graduation from religious formation, but it is nothing of the sort. It is about being led by the Lord Jesus to the place where the Spirit flourishes, and where the gifts of the Spirit are most easily detectable. After next week we will resume our consideration of the sacrament of confirmation, its rich and somewhat tangled history, its challenging theology, and its changing celebration. —Rev. James Field, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

2014 GUATEMALA MISSION… Please pray for us, the 2014 Missionaries, as we travel this week to witness, spread and share the love of God and the Good News of Jesus Christ to our poor brothers and sisters in Guatemala. Guatemala Missionaries from our Church Parish are Travis Chiasson, Jacob Clement, Terry Hebert, and Corinthia Reulet. Thanks to everyone who generously donated items and monies for the mission! God bless you!



TRANSFORMA TION
The effect of our sharing in the Body and Blood of Christ is to change us into what we receive. —Pope St. Leo the Great

INDIAN MISSIONARY SOICETY:
This weekend (21st and 22nd June) we will have Fr.Vargheese, a missionary from India to share with us about their missionary works.
This order is an indigenous missionary Society to spread the message of Christ among the people of other faith.
Established in 1941, this Order has 75 mission centers with 240 missionaries working in different parts of India.

India is a country with 1.2 billion people and the Christians constitute only about 2.2 % of the entire population.

So you can imagine the need of missionary work in India to make known Christ to those millions. As you know it is not easy today to preach the gospels to the people of other faith. Yet the missionaries of this Order are trying their best through various ways to spread the message of Christ. It involves also lots of financial burden. So this Order is seeking your financial help so that they can meet some of their basic needs in their missionary works. Jesus has asked all of us to preach the gospels to all the nations. As we are not able to do by ourselves , by helping the missionaries we do participate the mission works of the church.
Thank you in anticipation for your generosity.

Next week our church and diocese will take up the Peter's Pence Collection, which provides the Holy Father with the funds he needs to carry out his charitable works around the world. The proceeds benefit the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Join our Holy Father as a witness of charity to those who are suffering.

CCD News:

Has God been calling YOU to be a CCD Teacher or helper with our CCD Program?

Please pray about it and see maybe if God is calling YOU to become a CCD teacher or aide for religion. Please call the rectory if you are interested. Teachers and aides please call Nancy to let her know if you will be returning and where you would like to teach. All teachers and anyone who works with children, need to have Safe Environment Training. If you would like to volunteer and have never done Safe Environment we need to start the process going. Thank you.

Luke 10:2 "He told them: "The harvest is abundant, but the workers are few. Therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest." We are all called to use our gifts for the service of the Church. No one has come forward to offer their assistance in the teaching of our CCD students. Teachers are called to plant seeds. Are you a Teacher?
