Summertime and the living is easy. That is what the favorite old song says. The living may be easy, but often the giving is not. Summer collections often drop significantly in our parish because of vacation travel, sports schedules and other activities that cause parishioners to attend Mass in other parishes. If you would like to make your giving easy and consistent this summer, please consider our electronic giving option. Currently St. Joseph parish families are using this simple and secure way to make and track their parish giving. If you would like to learn more about this easy, safe and secure way of giving, please check out our website at <http://stjosephwautoma.weconnect.com>

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (B)

Jer 23:1–6 / Eph 2:13–18 / Mk 6:30–34

At the ranch where my mother lived in her adolescence, sheep wandered through pastures of grass and shrubs. When it came time to gather them into the corral at night, the ranch hands would get the dogs out and set them to work running around and behind the sheep to keep them together while the hands drove them in the right direction. Occasionally a young lamb or an injured ewe would fall, and the man closest would pick the animal up with a tenderness that seemed out of character with callouses and sunburned, weathered skin. When we visited the ranch, I remember vividly the look and smell of the sheep and that the ranch hands thought they were dumb.

While the sheep may not have been the smartest of animals, they knew the men and the promise of a safe pen and water at the end of the hot day undoubtedly made the job easier. From my mother's stories, I remember most the way she described the shepherders. They did not lead the sheep so much as walk with or behind them. They became part of the procession, rather than the head of it. This kept the sheep calm and moved them faster. When Jesus looked at the crowd, he saw a people that needed someone to walk with them and show them the way to go. They needed someone occasionally to go behind them to pick up the strays and the wounded and carry them tenderly home. This is what Jesus does for us. In his compassion, he brings us to pasture and, at the end, he gathers all people into his one flock and guides them home.

Colección de seminarista

Esperanza para el futuro, les ayudan hoy: este año marca el décimo aniversario de nuestra colección anual de seminarista. Más de 25 jóvenes están en los diversos seminarios de la diócesis de Green Bay. En unas dos semanas, nuestra parroquia ayudará a apoyar a través de la colección de seminarista: esperanza para el futuro, ayudar a hoy. Ver los buzones de correo para más detalles. El dinero donado se utilizará para beneficio de la educación y formación de seminaristas y apoyar las vocaciones sacerdotales. Por favor sean generosos!

Todos nosotros tenemos mucho que Agradecido

cada día. Cuando despierta a un nuevo día, cuando un amigo está en contacto con nosotros, para los alimentos que consumimos, el agua que fluye en nuestras casas, de flores, pájaros, árboles, nuestra salud, para los doctores cerrar por que se preocupan por nosotros: la lista puede seguir y seguir.

Agradeciendo a Dios debe ser parte de nuestra vida cotidiana. También es bueno para decirle a Dios acerca de inquietudes y preocupaciones: sobre puestos de trabajo, relaciones, familia, salud, todo lo que viene a la mente.

Compartir esos pensamientos con Dios a menudo le ayudará a disminuir las cargas que llevamos. Tomar tiempo – mucho – cada día para hablar con Dios en oración. Si pasas tiempo con miembros de la familia o los amigos, participar en la oración con usted y escuchar cómo comparten sus alegrías, preocupaciones y gracias a Dios.

All of us Have so Much to be Thankful for Each Day

When we awake to a new day, when a friend is in touch with us, for the food we eat, for the water that flows into our homes, for flowers, birds, trees, our health, for doctors close by who care for us: the list can go on and on.

Thanking God should be part of our daily lives. It is also good to tell God about worries and concerns: about jobs, relationships, family, health, whatever comes to mind.

Sharing those thoughts with God will often help to lessen the burdens we carry. Take time – lots of it – each day to talk to God in prayer. If you spend time with family members or friends, engage them in prayer with you and listen to how they share their joys, concerns and thanks with God.
