Guidelines For Parishes During Election Seasons

DO:

- ◆ Address the moral and human dimensions of public issues.
- ◆ Share church teaching on human life, human rights, and justice & peace.
- ◆ Apply Catholic values to legislation and public issues.
- ◆ Conduct a non-partisan voter registration drive on church property.
- ◆ Distribute unbiased candidate questionnaires covering issues of human life, justice, and peace that have been reviewed and approved by our L.A. Archdiocese's attorney.
- ◆ Check with the L.A. Archdiocese's attorney if you have any questions about what is appropriate.

DON'T:

- ◆ Endorse or oppose candidates for political office.
- ◆ Distribute partisan campaign literature under church auspices.
- ◆ Arrange for groups to work for candidate for public office.
- ◆ Invite only selected candidates to address your church-sponsored group.
- ◆ Conduct voter registration slanted toward one party.
- ◆ Distribute a biased candidate survey.

Parishes and other IRS-designated section 501(c)(3) church organizations are prohibited from participating in political campaign activity. Thus, certain political activities that are entirely for individuals may not be undertaken by church organizations or their representatives.

Parishes are often asked by candidates or political groups for permission to speak or distribute literature. Many parishes choose only to distribute Faithful Citizenship materials distributed by their diocese, their state Catholic conference, or the USCCB.

To avoid violating the political campaign activity prohibition, you should seek the advice of the L.A. Archdiocese's attorney or state Catholic conference before giving permission for the distribution of literature or providing the opportunity for candidates to speak.

Safeguard the Children

Parents should avoid lecturing and start talking

Lecturing teenagers may feel like the right path to take, especially if they are starting to develop bad habits or make poor choices, but lecturing is usually the least effective way to get your message across. Children tend to see lectures as condescending and abstract, and this detracts from the wisdom and advice you are trying to provide. Instead of lecturing, try to engage your child in a calm, open conversation that addresses the issue while allowing you both to talk about what's going on. For more tips and a copy of the VIRTUS® article "Communication Tip No. 11: Why Lecturing Doesn't Work," call (213) 637-7227 or email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Our San Roque Religious Education Office is closed for the Summer. For particular help call the Assistance Ministry at (213) 637-7650.

Notre Dame School, 33 E. Micheltorena St., is holding open enrollment for the coming school year. The school has grades from preschool to 8.
