Missionary Cooperative Plan

Today, Rev. Joseph K. Santiago, from the Diocese of Thanjavur, India, and a resident at St. Catherine Laboure in Torrance, CA, will speak at all our Masses.

The Diocese of Thanjavur is located on the east coast of South India. It covers an area of 3,687 square miles with a population of 7 million people, of whom only 250,000 are Catholics, and the rest are Hindus and Muslims. Being rural and agricultural, the Diocese has a great financial burden in maintaining parishes and continuing the work of evangelization. Flood and drought are common to the people. At present, the Diocese manages numerous schools, boarding homes (orphanages) for children who have lost one or both of their parents, nursing homes, homes for the destitute, and a home for the mentally disabled run by the sisters of Blessed Mother Theresa of Kolkata.

The Diocese is proclaiming God's Good News of His kingdom to the poor, agricultural laborers, and fishing communities. Missionary works include Catechetical training, formation to lay Catholics from villages and mission stations, regarding the church, bible, Sacraments and prayers. On receiving training, they go back to their communities and teach. People are poor and are not able to contribute to the church. The Diocese of Thanjavur runs 53 orphanages, the highest in all the dioceses of India. Orphans and semi orphan children of all religions, numbering about 2,500 are living in the orphanages. They are fed, clothed and educated, all for free. More so, orphans were added in the aftermath of Tsunami in 2004 in which many lost their families.

Missionary Cooperative Plan funds are also used to train priests, seminarians and to build chapels. The Diocese receives a good number of vocations to the priesthood and religious life and needs financial support for their training and formation. The Diocese also cares for widows and the physically disabled, provides shelter and dairy animals for the poor, and continues to care for the victims of the Tsunami.

Given the situation in the Diocese of Thanjavur, they are in desperate need of financial support. Please be generous and support the Missionary Cooperative Plan. Please keep the Catholics of Thanjavur in your prayers. This is a unique opportunity for you to be a missionary and to reach out to India by way of your prayers and financial support. The yellow envelopes for the Missionary Cooperation Plan can be found in the pews.

— Thank you! —

INSPIRATIONS

QUOTE FROM THE CATECHISM

On Faith #166

#166 - Faith is a personal act - the free response of the human person to the initiative of God who reveals himself. But faith is not an isolated act. No one can believe alone, just as no one can live alone. You have not given yourself faith as you have not given yourself life. The believer has received faith from others and should hand it on to others. Our love for Jesus and for our neighbor impels us to speak to others about our faith. Each believer is thus a link in the great chain of believers. I cannot believe without being carried by the faith of others, and by my faith I help support others in the faith.

QUOTE FROM THE DIALOGUE

by ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA

On Receiving the Eucharist

"If you have a light, and the whole world should come to you in order to take light from it - the light itself does not diminish - and yet, each person has it all. It is true that everyone participates more or less in this light, according to the substance into which each one receives the fire. [Ex:] Suppose that there are many who bring their candles, one weighing an ounce, others two or six ounces, or a pound... and light them in the flame, in each candle is the whole light...; nevertheless you would judge that he whose candle weighs an ounce has less than he whose candle weighs a pound. Now the same things happens to those who receive this Sacrament. Each one carries his own candle, that is the holy desire with which he receives this Sacrament."

Safeguard the Children

Road to priesthood involves a rigorous formation process

Seminary formation involves much more than academic study. Prior to ordination, a candidate for priesthood goes through a lengthy evaluation period, including internship during which he lives in a rectory and works with priests, staff and parishioners. During this time, the candidate is evaluated as to his suitability to be a priest. No one is ordained unless the staff of St. John's Seminary, including lay faculty and formation advisers, concludes that the candidate has attained emotional, psychological, and sexual maturity appropriate for his age and for the celibate life of a priest. For more information either visit www.lavocations.org or call the Office of Vocations at (213) 637-7248.

For child safety questions contact our San Roque Religious Education Office at (805) 682-1097. For particular help, call the Assistance Ministry at (213) 637-7650.
