The Baptism of the Lord

Merry Christmas! Share that cheerful greeting with some folks today. They may wonder if you have had any Elvis sightings lately, attended Star Trek conventions, or were Cleopatra in a previous lifetime. Despite the skeptics, today is solidly with-in the Christmas season. In fact, in some strands of the Christian tradition it represents the clearest manifestation of the mystery of the Incarnation. On Christmas Day, for example, the Gospel reading is the Prologue of John's Gospel, which reveals the glory of Christ shining through our humanity precisely in his baptism.

At any rate, this is an ancient feast, celebrated first in Egypt sixteen centuries ago. More than most other ancient people, the Egyptians understood the life-giving properties of water. On this day, they drew water from the Nile, so central in the history of their people, and reserved it in honor. Many other places copied the custom, so that St. John Chrysostom wrote of people in Antioch gathering at midnight to collect flowing water into vessels they brought from home since "today there is a blessing on the water." At home for dinner tonight, decorate the table with beautiful bowls of water and white candles, toast one another with goblets of sparkling water, and light a Christmas candle in the window one last time.

Question of the Week

What are some things you can do to please God?

R.E. Christmas Party-12/13/15

Christmas Pageant 2015

Safeguard the Children Be wary of online friendships

Today's teens may seem to be always online, with constant messaging and sharing on social media with a large audience. The internet is a great place to meet people, but these meetings come with potential dangers that can put kids and teens at risk. You don't know who you're really talking to online. Pay attention to the sites your kids are using on their computers and mobile devices. Monitor sites that they visit and ask questions about who they talk to and what information they provide to their online friends. For a copy of the VIRTUS® article: "Preventing Teen Victimization On-and-Offline," email: jvienna@la-archdiocese.org.

Contact our Religious Education Office for San Roque Parish's child safety activities by calling (805) 682-1097. For particular help call the Assistance Ministry at (213) 637-7650.

Hurtful Sin...

Sin is not hurtful because it is forbidden, but it is forbidden because it is hurtful.

—Benjamin Franklin

Blessing of Small Items...

Father Bruce or Father Barber would be happy to bless any small item(s) you may have after any of the Masses he celebrates. For large items, please call the Rectory Office to make an appointment at 687-5215.

Life is Changed, Not Ended You are Supported!

The Parish Office and Clergy of San Roque want you to know that we are here to serve you at the time when you suffer the loss of a loved one. Please contact the Parish Office immediately upon the death of a family member so that we can begin to pray for you, your loved one; and our staff and clergy can help you with your options and decisions in the coming days. Make us your first call: (805) 687-5215.
