ENDING THIS WEEK

“A Study in Biblical Typology”

The course concludes this Wednesday, Aug. 8, 5:30-6:30 pm. It has offered an introductory overview of the “type” links between the Old and New Testaments and examined a sampling of the people and events in the Old Testament that foreshadowed greater things in the New Testament. It also examined how we can apply this process to a better understanding of Sacred Scripture and what it should mean to us today.

MOVIE OF THE MONTH FOR AUGUST

Our third feature movie, “John XXIII; Pope of Peace,” will be shown on August 23, 1—4:30pm in the social hall. The movie is 3 hours and 23 minutes long and is in English. It stars Edward Asner in the role of the Pontiff. Angelo Roncalli came from common stock and was known for his simplicity, humor, courage and love for people.

This movie tells his whole life story from his youth through his young priesthood, episcopacy, life as a cardinal and eventually his life as the Pope. Elected as a supposedly “interim Pope,” he proved to be his own man when he surprised the Church and world by calling the Second Vatican Council which changed the Church in many ways for those of us who are currently living and practicing Catholics.

Movies are free. Enjoy the show in the company of like minded parishioners. No registration required—just come as you are. See you there!

“the Word Among us” for September is available in the Narthex.

Suggested donation is $2.00.

Adult Bible study with Deacon Dana will resume Wednesday, September 5, 2018, and continue on Wednesdays at 8:45 am and 5:30 pm in the prayer room. All are welcome!

CATHOLICS RETURNING HOME PROGRAM

This Program offers an opportunity for those who have been away from the Church to renew their Faith and learn how the Church has changed over the years. For more information please call Deacon Dan Pallo at (352) 391-9338.

COMING IN SEPTEMBER

“MORE OF GOD IN PRAYER”

Beginning September 4, this course will offer four new teachings on prayer: “The Value of Resting in God,” “The Presence of God,” “Waiting on God,” and “Creating Unity through Prayer.” Classes will be held in the Prayer Room from 3:00-4:30pm. All are welcome. For questions about course content, please call Annette King at (352) 399-2882 or Lynne Schlichting at (352) 539-9355. “And now I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, while I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are.” (John 17:11). Life gets busy, and we often forget that we are not made for this world. This month, may we remember God’s desire is to unite all mankind to himself and that our Eternal home is heaven.

STEWARDSHIP OF CREATION

As stewards of the earth, people are responsible for the management and care of the land and resources which God has entrusted to them.

In 1991, the U.S bishops' statement Renewing the Earth urged people to care for God's creation: "Stewardship implies that we must both care for creation according to the standards that are not of our own making and at the same time be resourceful in finding ways to make the earth flourish."

Dioceses across the United States are working to protect natural resources, reduce toxic emissions, conserve energy, and to encourage the cleanup of contaminated sites. Groups such as the Catholic Conservation Center urge people to be "stewards of a healthier and happier world."

HEART TO WITNESS

As we begin the month of August, we enter the With All Your Heart Season of "Heart to Witness".

Remember, With All Your Heart offers a way to invite Catholics to fully live their faith as members of a thriving parish. The aim is to strengthen parish life by increased involvement, generosity and membership. The name is inspired by the Great Commandment taught by Jesus – Love the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, mind and strength. (Mk 12:30). The year is divided into four Seasons: Heart to Pray, Heart to Serve, Heart to Share, and Heart to Witness.

The Heart to Witness Season offers the parish a time each year to grow in their understanding of how to evangelize within the context of our faith – becoming witnesses in both word and deed.

The ultimate missionary role we play is to invite others to know the love of Jesus. When we experience something great, we can't wait to tell others about it. Offering a loving invitation to others to journey with us toward life that is centered in and for Christ is the greatest form of discipleship.

In this week's bulletin there is a "Heart to Witness Calendar" that contains a variety of actions that we can do during the month to witness our faith in Jesus Christ. We invite you to clip the calendar from the bulletin, put it on your refrigerator door as a reminder to witness your faith everyday with all your heart

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHTS

Ministry of Consolation

The goal of the Ministry of Consolation is to ensure that no member of the parish grieves alone. The bereavement ministers are trained by the Diocese to assist parishioners as they grieve the death of a loved one. The ministers are trained to help with planning the Funeral Rite (Vigil, the Funeral Mass and Rite of Committal). This Ministry also provides all important follow-up care.

- Responsibilities: Assist in planning funeral rites and in providing as-needed support to grieving parishioners (e.g., food, transportation, follow-up care).
- Helpful Attributes: Compassion, sensitivity, strong human interaction skills.
- Time Commitment: Several hours for each family. Depends on family needs and the availability of the ministers.
- Training Required: Provided by Diocese and Ministry.
- Fingerprinting./Safe Environment Training Required: Yes

Grief Support

Parishioners that have endured the loss of a loved one can seek refuge among others who are experiencing similar loss. The process of bereavement is a difficult one, so it is the goal of this ministry to provide a haven to enable people in discussion about their grief. Allow people to understand there is no right way or wrong way to grieve, everyone must follow their own path.

- Responsibilities: Facilitate discussion and use materials that follow weekly topics. Attend meetings consistently.
- Helpful Attributes: Be a good listener, can facilitate discussion. Must have experienced personal loss.
- Time Commitment: Varies.
- Training Required: Must go through initial Ministry of Consolation training, followed by week of Grief Support training.
- Fingerprinting./Safe Environment Training Required: Yes, required only for ministry facilitators.

PARISH HAPPENINGS

Our Mother of Mercy Outreach Services

*The Lord gave them bread, bread from heaven.
Psalm 78*

When the Israelites were traveling to the “promised land”, food was scarce. Human nature caused many of them to complain to Moses and Aaron about their plight. Of course, God heard them and gave them quail in the evening and in the morning, bread. Just as God took care of the hungry Israelites, are we not to help feed our hungry neighbors in need?

Our pantry is open four times a month to hungry people because of your generosity. Beauticians, therapists, waiters, cooks, and cleaners have less customers and less hours or days of work. Rent, auto repairs and insurance, as well as medicine get paid prior to purchasing food. Summer is our busiest season for people who need food for their families. Please remember them in prayer and donations.

Our local paper has highlighted several pantries and soup kitchens in the area and their need for the summer. Some volunteers bake or clean up in the kitchen, while others organize bags of food in a pantry. They are grateful for your donations and prayers.

Now may be the time for you to do a collection of food in your neighborhood. Collecting non-perishable food is a great way for you to get to know your neighbors and give them an opportunity to give to a local worthy cause.

The last line from the altar at Mass tells us to glorify God by living our faith. Prayer, sharing talent and treasure in how we live our faith.

“We are the hands of Christ reaching out to those in need. We are the spirit of hope. Go make a difference in the world.”

Steve Angrisiano and Tom Tomaszek

Lost & Found The parish ‘lost and found’ is located in the parish office during the week, and in the Vesting Sacristy on the weekend. You can ask an Usher for assistance. Please stop by if you have lost or misplaced an item. You may also check at the church office during the week. Please check prior to the end of this month as items will be donated to a charitable ministry.
