John Wayne, Evangelization and 150 points of contact

I recall reading in a book called, The Old Evangelization, (a good read, by the way) about the results of an interesting study. It found that by the time someone converts, he has already had over 150 “points of contact” with Catholicism. So, for example, a Protestant who becomes Catholic may have gone to a Catholic wedding, made friends with a Catholic co-worker, read a book that presents Catholicism in an appealing way, or met a priest on an airplane. All of these encounters might nudge him toward conversion in ways he doesn’t even recognize. Further, the Catholics who influenced him might never know this side of heaven that they did so.

We need to keep in mind that conversion is usually a gradual process that appears sudden only to those on the outside. In a way, it is 149 points of failure followed by one big success. Yet the Holy Spirit is using those 149 points of “failure” to bring about conversion.

I think of this as I saw a picture of John Wayne, while he was shooting The Quiet Man, one of my favorite secular movies. The movie has many redeeming qualities, my favorite of John Wayne movies. One of those reasons is that like On The Waterfront and Going My Way, it has a good depiction of a priest. Sadly, that doesn’t occur any more in what Hollywood produces. Anyways, this picture was taken as John Wayne was shooting the movie in Ireland. He was not a Catholic at the time, but he did convert on his deathbed.

One of those who never gave up on his conversion was his first wife, Josephine. She was the mother of Patrick, their son featured in this picture. She prayed for many years for the conversion of her husband. She did not remarry until after his death, because she believed her marriage to him was still valid in the eyes of the Catholic Church. All four of their children were raised in the Catholic faith, and one of their grandsons is even a priest.

And of course, it does not end there. Who knows how many folks will be influenced by John Wayne’s conversion or merely seeing this picture. A good reason to pass this on—and add to those 150 points of contact!

Liturgy for Fallen Away Catholics

Speaking of 150 points of contact, I will be conducting a prayer service for fallen away Catholics as spoken about in the book I gave to all parishioners, Return: How to Draw Your Child Back to the Church. I reached out to its author, Brandon Vogt and he put me in contact with a parish in Florida that offers this service. I am pleased to announce we will have our first one on Monday, November 5 at 6:30 PM I am sure you know of someone who has fallen away from the Church. We all have family and friends who have and we cannot underestimate the power of prayer in bringing them back. So please make every effort to make this—adding this one to your 150 points of contact.

Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam,

Fr. Kaim, S.T.L.

Human Coalition(HC) a pro-life organization celebrates rescue of 10,000 babies from abortion - Anna Reynolds, www.liveaction.org, writes, "In just over eight years, HC has saved more than 10,000 lives from abortion. Reaching women who have already decided to abort, they offer them an alternative.

Brian Fisher, president of HC, described HC as a full-fledged non-profit with a growing network of advocates across the nation offering women tangible help in their own communities. He wrote, '10,000 is a large number. Where I live, our high schools average about 2,000 kids/school. That means 10,000 equals 5 high schools. 10,000 people fill many stadiums and would fill all sorts of small towns across the nation. 10,000 is a whole lot of school buses.' Watch their beautiful video that commemorates the 10,000 children rescued." (<https://tinyurl.com/ybfse3aa>)

President Trump affirms Right to Life of Down syndrome babies in powerful statement - Calvin Freiburger, www.lifesitenews.com, writes, "Recognizing Down Syndrome Awareness Month, Pres. Trump in a statement celebrating the 'lives of the more than 250,000 Americans with Down syndrome' pledging a deeper 'understanding of Down syndrome and learning more about how we can ensure the beautiful people with Down syndrome are able to fully participate in society,' and honoring the sanctity of lives at every stage. All people are endowed by their Creator with dignity and the rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Despite some persistent myths and stigmas, even within the medical community, our Nation strongly embraces the undeniable truth that a Down syndrome diagnosis is an opportunity to embrace God's gifts. I stand for life in all of its beautiful manifestations and I, and my Administration, will continue to condemn the prejudice and discrimination that Americans with Down syndrome too often endure.'" (<https://tinyurl.com/y8hdpw2q>)

Trump administration cancels FDA contract to buy aborted baby parts for research - Kelli, www.liveaction.org, writes, "The Dept. of Health and Human Services (HHS) announced that it is terminating its contract with Advanced Bioscience Resources, a fetal tissue procurement company which contracted with multiple Planned Parenthood abortion facilities to harvest aborted fetal body parts to then sell to researchers. (read about them, <https://tinyurl.com/yd5uw6bq>)" (<https://tinyurl.com/yddeapvh>)

Join Fr. Kaim for one of your most powerful Lenten journeys ever!

Join him as we honor some of our fallen heroes by walking 26.2 miles in the annual memorial of the Bataan Death March, held near Fr. Kaim's Air Force Base in New Mexico. The memorial march is conducted in honor of the heroic service members who defended the Philippine Islands during World War II, sacrificing their freedom, health, and, in many cases, their very lives. The Death March was the forcible transfer by the Japanese Army of 60,000–80,000 American and Filipino POW, after the Battle of Bataan in 1942. The brutal conditions of the march led to the death of 5,000 to 18,000 Americans and Filipinos.

Too ambitious for you? You are welcome instead to walk the 14.2 mile honorary march. Either way, you will experience a Lent you'll never forget

Living Rosary

ON THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4TH, OUR HOLY FAMILY STUDENTS PRESENTED THE LIVING ROSARY. SIMPLY BEAUTIFUL!

Join Fr. Kaim for Our Second All-Night Prayer Vigil on All Souls Day!

You might recall, the first all-night vigil was to ask the Infant Jesus of Prague to help us with our building campaign and for anyone having financial difficulties. This second one will also have a two-fold purpose: in reparation for the clergy scandal and for any loved one who has passed.

At this prayer vigil, we will ask the intercession of Sts. Michael, Raphael & Gabriel. Why turn to our Archangels in this difficult time in the church? For many reasons, but first and foremost, because St. Raphael is the patron of spiritual healing and what do we need more than this right now in the Church? When you join us in prayer, you can bring the intentions for your family members or friends who are in need of any type of healing. St. Michael is the guardian and protector of the church and of the dying. Is someone you know close to death? Bring your prayers to St. Michael. Do you have people in your life you are estranged from? St. Gabriel is the patron of communication, and so, he's a worthy intercessor.

The vigil will go from 6 PM to 3 AM on Friday, November 2, here at Holy Family. You need not stay the entire evening. Every hour there will be some sort of group prayer followed by silence. Some of the things we will do are pray a Rosary, Meditate on Scripture, have a Eucharistic Healing service and more. This is also All Soul's Day, so if you have a loved one who has passed away, this is a powerful day to come pray for the repose of their soul! As a bonus, it is even a First Friday with many graces that are poured out by our Lord to all the faithful. Come join us in prayer for whatever you need these powerful intercessors to help you with. Know that there is power in the sacrifices we make, such as depriving ourselves of food and sleep as we beg for God's mercy.

The Moms ROCK group at Edwards Apple Orchard! What a beautiful day to feed the animals, play in the park and eat doughnuts!
