Pastor's Corner

I pray all are doing going well. Happy Father's Day to all you out there. Know you're loved and appreciated! Know also you are someone's hero. MY Dad was mine! I have to write the next three articles so far in advance and I always think, what if something really life changing happens, obviously it won't be mentioned-I pray I'm still living, if not :Hello from the other side" can't wait to get there but gonna wait my turn.

Today Jesus speaks to us in parables. It was always so important to Him that people fully understood what He was saying or teaching. Whenever a preacher gives you the feeling like he is speaking way over your head and you cannot understand the concept then he is not a good preacher and certainly does not follow Jesus' way of preaching. All the people hearing Jesus speak knew the land, they understood amazing concepts because He was meeting them where they "were". Jesus is telling the people about the Kingdom of Heaven and they were able to relate by His examples.

God constantly communicates with us on our level and with whatever our interests are. Almost every day I am able to recognize a time or event when He lets me know He is there or lets me know how much He loves me.

Our God is all about communication, relationships. He does not want slaves He wants friends / family to share life with! By the end of today, I pray you will be able to recognize how God intervened into your life, I promise, He did!

Have a great week,

Love,

Fr. Mike
