They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all."

Pastor 's Corner

I pray these lines find all doing well. Although the date reads that we are into fall you could never tell by the weather, its been pretty oppressive!

This week's Gospel gives us two different subjects on which to focus. Being self centered or being child – like. The two are significantly different. Notice I am saying child-like not childish, big difference. Actually being childish usually implies self centeredness.

We have a reason to thank God for the “human-ness” of the disciples because think we can learn what “not to do” from them. Think about it, their teacher and Lord just tells them He is going to be killed and what are they talking about—who amongst them is the greatest. How self –absorbed and childish can you get?

To be child-like is to maintain a sense of wonder, to see the world with an optimism that begins always on a positive note. A spiritual directee of mine from the distant past made Eeyore from Winnie the Pooh look like “Little Mary Sunshine” next to him, everything was so negative. In fact at one point he coined a phrase wrong and he said “you know what they always say, “Hope fades eternal” to which I stared laughing as I corrected him. The phrase is “Hope springs eternal”. He then started laughing too, realizing he did have quite the negative outlook on life.

Our God is totally Amazing!!! God is in charge of us “If we let Him be, but, only if we let Him.” I'll let you in on a little secret—If you think hope does fade eternal for your life then YOU are in charge. If hope springs eternal—you are in the process of giving it all to GOD!

Have a great week!

Love,

Fr. Mike

40 Days for Life

Please join us for a Prayer Service to end abortion, this Wednesday September 26th at 6:30PM in the Chapel. Both pro-life and pro-choice folks are encouraged to be there. As the prophet Isaiah told us in last weeks first reading; “the Lord opens my ear that I may hear”. All of our youth should attend, come and pray with us that this culture of death in our country will soon come to and end. If you have had an abortion and need help, please contact Deacon Mark or Deacon Jim, there is help for you, God grace is more powerful than anything in the world

Bishop Gregory Parkes continues to support Diocesan parishes' participation in 40 Days for Life, advocating peaceful prayerful pro-life presence at local abortion sites.

Our St James parish has been assigned Monday, October 15 to be present at the Clearwater abortion site. Every parishioner and parish group, including Knights of Columbus and Legion of Mary is invited to register today at the Youth Group sign-up table. Preborn girls and boys are depending on your prayerful and courageous response!
