From the Deacon's Desk!

While Father Mike is away enjoying his cold weather, cold water lobster, and apples we continue here with our beautiful Florida warm fall weather, warm water lobster, and tomatoes!

Today's Gospel is a powerful reminder that God is in full control of our destiny, no matter what we try to control or think we control. Here again, the disciples fail to realize the implications of Jesus' teachings on His suffering. James and John are asking for positions of honor with Jesus when He achieves His destiny. Regarding His sufferings; think about this, Jesus uses the word "Baptism" indicating that His sufferings will be the font of purification for the entire world and for all people. Just meditate on that beautiful image today and think about what Jesus has given us. As for the disciples; James and John readily agreed with Jesus, saying they can drink from the same cup, all the while still clinging to what they asked for; power and honor. All our destinies are prepared by God, Jesus tells us that directly. Power is absolutely the opposite of what Jesus teaches us to focus on. The desire for power and honor are human desires but Jesus is calling us all to be servants. If we truly follow Jesus, and He came to serve, then shouldn't we who are His followers do the same. Amen?

Love,

Deacon Mark

“Let your light shine before others that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven” (Matthew 5:16). Thank you and God bless. Mrs. Lorraine Parsons

40 Days for Life Kickoff at our parish ( St James) took place Sept. 26 in the chapel with a prayer service, placing of the white crosses and light refreshments in the youth room. Deacon Mark and some adults shared with the youth their thoughts and experiences regarding this very important issue (pro-life). It was a very informative night and we are so happy to see you all there. Thank you Fr. Mike, Deacon Jim , Deacon Mark (who shared a story about the doctor who had a change of heart), Mrs. Tina McCann for the music and our youth reader, Lauren.

Please continue to PRAY to END ABORTION. Our closing prayer service will be held in the chapel, November 5, Monday at 6:30pm followed by the removal of the white crosses.
