Our Prayers and Sympathy are Extended to the family and friends of Florence Sweeney, who died Saturday, May 20th, and Docie Svarda who died Tuesday, May 23rd.

Thank You 4th Degree!

Thanks to Grand Knight Bob Weaver and the 4th Degree K of C, there's a new American Flag flying over St. John Church. Thanks also to the veteran who pointed out the damaged flag and made a donation to replace it with the new one. Good guys!!

Health Ministry:

Why Then Should We All Remember?

It is not the wars we are remembering this Memorial Day, rather we are remembering those who gave their lives to insure that the freedom this country offers to all would be passed on to next generations. They remind us of the cost of freedom and of the quality of our character as a nation. We do not gather on this holiday to glorify war. Rather, we are challenged to remember that when war comes unbidden to us, there are those who are willing to give all to defend this nation. We want to remember in the hope that we will find ways to prevent wars and never have to fight them again. There is among veterans, no more hoped for desire than the desire that their own sons and daughters will never suffer the terrors or effects of wars.

"All veterans hope and pray that their war will be the last one..."

Let us all join them in this prayer today and everyday. Wishing you a "remembering" Memorial Day. TheVetSite.com

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Acts 1:1-11

Today's passage takes us back to the beginning verses of the Acts of the Apostles and sets forth the themes that Luke is going to develop throughout this, the longest book of the New Testament. His major theme is the role of the Holy Spirit, who enables the apostles to be effective witnesses to Jesus. The Holy Spirit is mentioned 57 times in the Acts of the Apostles.

Second Reading - Ephesians 1:17-23

Ephesus was an ancient city located on the western coast of what is today Turkey. Paul visited there several times. Today's passage, which is near the beginning of the letter to the Ephesians, is a prayer asking God's blessings upon that community. Many thoughts in this prayer are connected to today's feast of the Ascension.

GRADUATION

It is with bittersweet emotions that we say good-bye to our Grade 8 students as they move on from St. John XXIII to various high schools. We are happy that they have worked hard, persevered, and are graduating, however, we are sad that we will no longer be seeing them on a daily basis in our hallways and classrooms.
