Wanted: Parishioners for the Offertory Procession

Looking for an easy way to get more out of Mass? Want to get involved without getting on another schedule or adding to your to-do list?

Why not take a turn carrying up the gifts? You'll find an Offertory Procession book in the back of both churches. If the square for the Mass you're attending is blank, we need you!

Just write in your name so that the ushers know that you're carrying up the gifts. You'll likely see an usher so you can let them know you've signed up as well. It's that easy!

Get more out of Mass. Get involved!

Health Ministry:

6 Tips for Your Next Doctor Visit

- To help make the most of each visit with your doctor, remember these helpful tips:
- 1) Bring your health plan ID card and photo ID. Be prepared to show them at every visit.
 - 2) Make a list. Before your visit, jot down questions for your doctor, symptoms you've noticed, and a list of all the medicines and supplements you take.
 - 3) Invite a buddy. Bring a family member or friend along if you think you may need help remembering what the doctor tells you.
 - 4) Speak up. Tell your doctor about new or changing symptoms, any family history of disease and any trips outside the country. And be honest about your health habits.
 - 5) Ask questions. If you don't understand an instruction, ask your doctor to explain it again. Consider taking notes.
 - 6) Stay in your network. Ask your doctor to send lab tests to a facility in your network.

For your convenience, we've included a special "SVDP 5th Sunday" envelope in the July pack.

A St. Vincent de Paul Outreach Profile

Last week I met a lovely lady who had experienced a few terrible weeks resulting in her move to an apartment of her own. Although she works, her income was barely able to cover rent and other expenses. The move left her with her bed and a lawn chair, but no other furniture. She had a stove, but no cookware. I was startled when I entered her home at the sparkling cleanliness and tasteful presentation of her few belongings throughout. Outside, she had also removed all the weeds from her garden and had lovely plants arranged. With pride, she showed me her tomato plants that clearly evidenced her green thumb. I returned with cookware and lamps which caused such joy and a few happy tears and plan to follow through this week with furniture donated by our generous parishioners. Thank you for your kindness!

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Zechariah 9:9-10

In the last centuries before Christ, the Jewish people hoped for a triumphant Messiah king. The prophet Zechariah spoke instead of a Messiah who would come not in splendor and glory with horses and chariots but rather in meekness and peace, riding a common work animal. All four evangelists will later apply this passage to the entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem several days before his arrest.

Second Reading - Romans 8:9, 11-13

Today we will begin five Sundays of readings from chapter eight of Paul's letter to the Romans, a chapter which emphasized the role of the Holy Spirit. Paul wants us to remember that the Spirit who will raise our bodies on the last day is the same Spirit who inspires us to holiness every day. Today Paul offers a sharp contrast between life in the flesh (meaning life prone to sin) and life in the Spirit.

Lay Catholic Studies

50% Off Tuition for 2017-2018

The Athenaeum of Ohio LPMP - Lay Pastoral Ministry Program - offers lay Catholics the opportunity to grow in faith, knowledge and skills. Weeknight and Saturday classes with Graduate and Non-Degreed options fit into busy adult schedules, allowing the participants to maintain job, family, and community commitments while answering a call to deeper discipleship. Interviews are now underway for fall classes at the main campus and Good Shepherd parish. With a 50% lay tuition reduction, there has never been a better time to learn about your faith. Call 513-231-1200 for more details.

Answers to the Special Terms II Catholic Faith Quiz

1. (c) Catholic parishes rely on the service of sacristans to care for, organize, and arrange the sacred vessels and vestments that are used for the celebration of the Eucharistic liturgy.
2. (b) A ciborium looks like a chalice but it has a more rounded bowl and has a cover usually surmounted with a cross.
3. (b) A lavabo set (lavabo is Latin for I shall wash; see Psalm 26) refers to the vessels used for washing of the priest's hands after the Offertory of the Mass.
4. (b) A miter is two pieces of stiff triangle-shaped material attached at the side to form a hat. Israelite priests used to wear something similar. In about the twelfth century it became the customary hat for Catholic bishops.
5. (a) The censer burns incense made of aromatic gum, and the rising smoke symbolizes prayers rising to heaven. The vessel is also called a "thurible."
6. (c) The word comes from the Latin for "shoulder blade." It's a garment covering the chest and back, worn by religious. A shorter version for laypeople is only two small pieces of cloth connected by two long cords. The most widely used is the "brown scapular" of the Carmelite Order.
