Health Ministry:

5 Steps for Praying When You're Overwhelmed

In his Spiritual Exercises, St. Ignatius of Loyola provided the Examen as a five-step tool for reflection. The focus of this tool is to heighten your awareness of God's presence in the experiences of your daily life. The following steps are an adapted Examen for reviewing and processing your own crisis. 1. Find a safe and quiet place to become aware of God's presence. Recent events may seem to be swirling around you. Step away to breathe. In Mark 6:31, Jesus told us that there is a time to "Come away ... all by yourselves and rest a while." 2. Review what has occurred through the lens of gratitude.

Gratitude is the foundation of our relationship with God. In every situation, even the most difficult, we are given gifts. 3. Pay attention to your emotions, recognizing they are sacred. St. Ignatius embraced emotion. He believed that the presence of the Holy Spirit became clearly revealed in the emotions that are evoked when we reflect on our experiences. 4. Ask God to speak to your open heart. Pray to receive insight from these experiences. Somewhere in your reflection on this recent crisis situation, God is providing you with messages. 5. Look toward tomorrow. Ask God to provide you with strength for the challenges that lie ahead. Pray this prayer: "God, in the next few hours and days, please help me to ..." excerpted from the article "5 Steps for Praying When You're Overwhelmed" in Busted Halo (see LINKS on our parish website) by Kristen Witte - August 23, 2017

New Church Photo Directory Update!

When we finished up the fourteenth day of photo appointments on Saturday, June 10th, we were on schedule to wrap things up by the end of the month and anticipated distribution of the new directories by the end of August. But then catastrophic programming errors were found in our parish records. These bizarre inaccuracies were only correctable by the database provider. While we were told the company was expediting the fix, it took two attempts and two months!!! We're back on track and are hoping to have the new directories out by Thanksgiving. Thank you for your patience!

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Jeremiah 20:7-9

Jeremiah often anguished over the difficulty in being a prophet. Proclaiming God's message made him very unpopular. Today we hear why he still felt compelled to do it.

Second Reading - Romans 12:1-2

Toward the end of Paul's letter to the Romans, he deals with the moral demands made on those who follow Christ. In today's reading, Paul reminds us that living a Christian life - which so often includes sacrifice - is like an act of liturgical worship in which we offer ourselves to God.
