Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed

It is the custom of our parish to remember every individual who has been buried from Holy Family during the last year. Candles will be lit as their names are read and placed in the Books of Remembrance at both churches. Everyone is invited to add deceased loved ones' names to these books beginning next weekend. We ask you to pray with us for all the faithful departed.

Health Ministry:

Cleaning Products Never to Mix!

People often think, "If one product works, mixing it with another will make it work even better." A scary truth! Certain products, when used alone, are safe but can spell trouble when mixed with another product. Don't start playing chemist! NEVER MIX -

* Drain Cleaner + Drain Cleaner

Can result in an explosion / ruin plumbing.

* Hydrogen Peroxide + Vinegar

Results in an acid which can irritate the skin, eyes and respiratory system.

* Bleach + Vinegar

Creates chlorine gas which, even at low levels, can cause breathing problems, coughing, and burning, watery eyes.

* Bleach + Ammonia

Same as bleach and vinegar along with chest pain, shortness of breath, throat burns.

* Bleach + Rubbing Alcohol

Creates chloroform which at low levels can cause dizziness and nausea. Higher levels can damage skin, eyes, lungs, liver, kidneys, nervous system and even result in death.

 Probably best to never mix bleach with anything other than water. ***

Even if your concocted combo isn't dangerous or toxic, you can't be sure what effect the product will have on the surface or fabric.

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Malachi 1:14—2:2, 8-10

The book of Malachi was written after the Jews returned from exile in Babylon. The prophet expresses God's displeasure because, once the people returned to their homeland and enjoyed better times, they grew lazy in their religious practices. Today's passage is directed to the Jewish priests in the temple, scolding them for their carelessness and indifference.

Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 2:7-9, 13

Thessalonica was a city in northeastern Greece, where Christians were being persecuted. So Paul wrote them a friendly and encouraging letter. In today's passage, we will hear him use a touching image to describe his relationship with these people whom he loves.

If you have any question, call the office 422-0602. SHALOM - Serving the Homeless with Alternate Lodging network Of Middletown

Tuam, Ireland

We have parishioners buried in our parish cemetery, Calvary Cemetery, from Tuam, Ireland. Last Sunday The New York Times had an insert on Tuam. If you're interested in reading it just call the parish office 422-0602.

Giving Trees in the Churches This Weekend!

Giving Tree Gifts are a very personal way to share the joy of Christmas! As is tradition, parishioners are invited to choose an ornament, purchase the suggested gift, wrap it, and bring the gift with the tag attached to the 9:00 AM Thanksgiving Day Mass celebrated at St. John Church or to the parish office during the last week of November or the first week of December.

Prison Ministry: Angel Tag

We team with Messiah Lutheran Church to provide Christmas gifts for Middletown children whose parent or guardian is currently in prison. Through the chaplain, inmates request gifts for their children.

Messiah Lutheran passes out these gifts in early December!

Family Services: Star Tag

Needy families in the Middletown area sign up with Family Services for Christmas gifts for their children. Our St. Vincent de Paul Society joins other organizations and churches in the community to provide these gifts.

Our SVDP passes out these gifts on Friday, December 15th!

Homebound Parishioners: Christmas Tree Tag NEW THIS YEAR!!!

We share Christmas with our parish family! The best gift you can give is the gift of your time and friendship! Pope Francis says, "You are the visible face of the invisible Father!" This year we're asking for uplifting Christmas visits to our homebound parishioners - so no need buy a gift or return the tag! In fact - you'll want to keep the tag, as on the back you'll find the name and address plus some personal notes for a homebound parishioner who would love a visit from YOU! Involve the whole family! Grandparents - have grandchildren color a Christmas picture or make a fancy ornament. Moms and Dads - pick out a family favorite Christmas story and have the kids read it aloud or bake and decorate some Christmas Cookies to take along. Scout troops - pair up for individual visits and then join as a troop to go caroling in the halls! Instead of going out for coffee, friends can instead plan a visit and give a small religious or personal care item as a little gift! Why not take a break from the crazy materialism of the season and spread some Christmas Joy!

Calvary Cemetery Collection

by Dr. Steph Burk - parishioner and Calvary Cemetery Assoc. Member

I had the good fortune to visit Ireland recently, and as we drove along the narrow, winding roads I wondered how it must have felt for Irish folks to find themselves in America. Busy, bustling New York City was certainly a far cry from the land they had left behind.

As we know, quite a few found their way to Middletown; some of the earliest graves in our Calvary Cemetery are Irish: the Fogartys, natives of county Tipperary, where we stood in pouring rain at a horse trial, watching horses leap over huge fences in a "business as usual" fashion; the Heslins from county Meath, with its archeological wonders; Margaret Kelly of County Galway, whose shores are pounded by the wild Atlantic surf; Mary Costigan, native of Kildare, an ancient city where you can still walk the medieval walls; Bridget Cunningham, born in County Sligo, where five of us raced sure-footed horses down a sandy estuary and watched seals watching us.

How could they leave this beautiful place? Of course, a number of Irish emigrated to the United States in search of better lives during the terrible Great Famine of the mid-nineteenth century. Even so, the tombstones in Calvary commemorating their deaths frequently list their birthplace as well - as if the families of the deceased knew that their homeland was never far from their heart. Perhaps around supper tables and fireplaces across the street from Holy Trinity Church, in the neighborhood then known as "Little Dublin," tales were shared in the Irish fashion - of great warriors like Brian Boru, battles such as the Battle of the Boyne, mythic tales about Dieder of the Sorrows, and the Children of Lir. Of course we were there primarily for the horses and the history - which figures, if you know us - but seeing the birthplaces on the gravestones in Calvary Cemetery and associating them with places we visited reminds us what the stones represent: lives full of stories and adventures, laughter and heartache, love and loss - in short, lives just like our own.

Please help us remember and honor those who have gone before us by contributing to the upkeep of Calvary Cemetery during the month of November.

An envelope is included with your collection envelopes this month, but any envelope will do, of course. Walk among the graves, read the inscriptions and whisper an Irish prayer for their souls: "Until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of his hand."
