Health Ministry:

Children's Gifts You Can't Buy

It's the holiday season filled with children's "wish lists"- tangible items such as dolls, Legos and video games. YET some of the most valuable gifts are not tangible and yet priceless even though their value may not be recognized until later in life. These gifts? Practical skills that will last a lifetime.

Healthful Eating taught and modeled at home can have a lifelong, positive impact on a child's health...for he or she will have plenty of opportunities away from home to eat junk food.

Healthful Cooking taught and modeled at home - kitchen "know how" plus reading and following recipes, practicing fractions and general measuring and estimating.

General Household DIY (do it yourself) Skills which can develop a strong sense of independence and save money. Begin with the simple: changing light bulbs, using a plunger, changing various filters, to the more difficult such as basic car maintenance: checking oil, air filter, tire pressure, replacing air, changing tires...

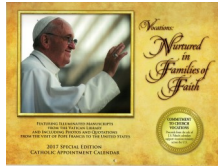

Add to these practical presents the invaluable gifts of kindness, unconditional love, your time and presence and watch your child thrive.

P.S. To avoid a melt down, a wrapped present or two under the tree won't hurt.

KNOXVILLE PARENT/TRU PARENTING

2018 Calendars Available

2018 calendars featuring illuminated manuscripts from the Vatican library and including photos of Pope Francis and quotations from his encyclical Laudato Si' (On Care for our Common Home) are available at the doors of both churches. If you did not receive one from your neighborhood representative, please be sure to pick up your free copy. And if you'd like to serve as your neighborhood rep and distribute calendars next year, we'd love to hear from you! Call the parish off 422-0602 and we'll get you signed up!

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Isaiah 61:1-2, 10-11

The last part of the book of Isaiah contains the words of a prophet who preached after the Jews returned from exile in Babylon. They found their temple destroyed and the city leveled. In today's reading, the prophet describes how God called him to encourage the people in this desperate time.

Second Reading - 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24

Our second reading comes at the end of Paul's first letter to the Thessalonians. Just as a parent might give last-minute instructions as their child heads out the door, so Paul has a list of last-minute instructions for these people whom he loves.

The Colors of Advent Advent has a two-fold character: as a season to prepare for Christmas when Christ's first coming to us is remembered, and as a season when that remembrance directs our minds and hearts to await Christ's second coming at the end of time. Advent is a period of devout and joyful expectation. This is very different from the penitential nature of Lent. Therefore, some parishes, Holy Family included, use blue violet during Advent to preserve the traditional use of purple, while providing a visual distinction between the purple or red violet of Lent.
