Catholic Schools Week ~ January 28th - February 3rd

Catholic Schools: Communities of Faith, Knowledge and Service

The Catholic Schools Week theme encompasses several concepts that are at the heart of Catholic education. First, schools are communities - small families in their own right, but also members of the larger community of home, church, city and nation. Faith, knowledge and service are three measures by which any Catholic school can and should be judged. The logo features a swirl of colors interacting around a cross, which is at the center of Catholic education. The vibrancy of the colors and the movement and shadows in the logo portray the inner-connectivity and community life that are present in our Catholic schools.

St. John XXIII faculty, staff, students, and families are participating in the 10:30 AM Mass today. There will be an Open House for New Families at the school from 12 to 3 PM this afternoon.

Health Ministry:

Too Sick to Go to School?

Many parents have a hard time deciding if their kids are well enough to go to school or child care. After all, what well-meaning parent hasn't gotten that mid morning "come get your child" phone call? Trust your instincts and these guidelines to decide: NEVER send your child to school

- * who has a fever (higher than 100.4 taken by mouth without fever reducing medicine)
- * has a severe headache or earache
- * is wheezing or short of breath
- * is nauseated, vomiting or has diarrhea.
- * if you know the illness is contagious such as flu, chicken pox, pink eye, impetigo, or a sore throat lasting more than 48 hours, especially with a fever and throat is spotty with red and white patches as it could be strep throat.

Keep your child home until diagnosed and the doctor gives the OK. Kids who lose their appetites, are clingy or lethargic, complain of pain or who are not "acting themselves" should also take a sick day. What about a mild cold? You don't have to sideline a kid, but keep in mind he/she may still pass the virus on to somebody else.

Introductions to Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Deuteronomy 18:15-20

The events in today's reading take place as the Israelites are camped on the shore of the Jordan River ready to enter the Promised Land. Moses is near death and is giving final instructions. He promises that after his death, God will still be with them through another prophet. Both Jewish and Christian readers have seen this as referring to the future Messiah.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 7:32-35

In this section of the first letter to the Corinthians, Paul is responding to their questions about whether it is better to remain single or become married. Paul's belief was that when you become Christian, you shouldn't take on a new state in life since he expected Jesus would return in glory very soon.

Weeks of Feb 11th - March 18th To sign up, contact the parish office 422-0602. If you have participated in the past, your facilitator should be contacting you. The book of Job helps us work through one of the most difficult questions that confronts us in life: Why do bad things happen to good people? In Job: A Good Man Asks Why, author Kevin Perrotta walks us through the key points in the book of Job and helps us understand suffering, justice, and love in a new light. Whether you feel you are a beginner or are experienced in reading the Bible, we hope you'll consider joining a small group to learn and grow in faith with fellow parishioners. For busy adults who want to study the Bible but don't know where to begin, "Six Weeks with the Bible" provides an inviting starting point. The guide is divided into six 90-minute segments.

OUR DOORS ARE OPEN: *No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church, no matter what your current family and marital situation, no matter what your age, race, background, personal history, etc., no matter what your own self-image — you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected here at Holy Family Parish.
