Workaholic? There Are Clues

Workaholic: a life out of balance; work holds too much importance. Do any of these key signs sound familiar or fit you?

- * First to arrive/last to leave work.
- * Work through lunch hour...often!
- * Work hard; set impossibly high standards;
 - feel like never good enough
 - need to please others
- * Trouble delegating responsibilities;
 - have strong need to control other people and situations - not a team player.
- * Report for duty even when sick.
- * Neglect other aspects of non-working life;
 - save little time to enjoy family and other personal relationships.
- * Stressed out when not at work.
- * Don't take real vacations for the mind is at work even when you are not.

All work/no play could be hurting your health. "Health consequences include significantly higher work related stress and job burn-out rates, anger, depression, anxiety and psychosomatic symptoms such as headaches and stomachaches." Think you need help? www.workaholics-anonymous.org

Introductions to Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Job 7:1-4, 6-7

The Book of Job is a long parable which grapples with why bad things happen to good people. This question was especially crucial to people of that time because they didn't believe in life after death, and therefore one received reward or punishment in this life. Job has lost his children, his property and his health, and he lives at the city dump. In this passage, he gives an understandably pessimistic evaluation of life.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Paul's enemies frequently criticized him for the least little thing. At a time when most teachers received compensation from those they instructed, Paul was criticized because he refused financial support from the community. Because of this, they discredited him as not being a legitimate apostle. Today we hear his response.

Small Groups Meeting Again This Lent! "Six Weeks with the Bible"

Job A Good Man Asks Why?

Weeks of Feb 11th - March 18th

The book of Job helps us work through one of the most difficult questions that confronts us in life: Why do bad things happen to good people? In Job: A Good Man Asks Why, author Kevin Perrotta walks us through the key points in the book of Job and helps us understand suffering, justice, and love in a new light. Whether you feel you are a beginner or are experienced in reading the Bible, we hope you'll consider joining a small group to learn and grow in faith with fellow parishioners. For busy adults who want to study the Bible but don't know where to begin, "Six Weeks with the Bible" provides an inviting starting point.

The guide is divided into six concise, 90-minute segments that introduce one part of the Bible.

To sign up, please contact the parish office 422-0602.

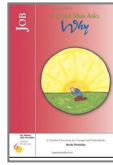

If you have participated in the past, your facilitator should be contacting you.

Luckily, there's also no shortage of town gossips, each with her own theory acted out in hilarious slow-mo fashion for the audience to see! Could it have been saloon girl Darleen, the last one to see Albert and the girl he dumped for Kayla May? Was it Virgil, the reluctant best man, and ex-boyfriend of Kayla May? Maybe it was lonely Harley, who snuffed out Albert to steal his bride? How about Hazel, the about-to-be-evicted mother of the bride? It's going to take all of Sheriff Tickle's investigative skills, along with his sidekick daughter Sarah and extra help from the audience, to solve this animated mystery!

Answers to the Special SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION Faith Quiz

1. (d) One sacrament, many names and graces. Most parishes hear confessions on Saturdays and have communal penance services once or twice a year. Private appointments may also be made.
2. (d) Communal penance services are often held during Advent and Lent. Additional priests are usually present to accommodate the large number of people going to confession.
3. (c) The words mea culpa from the Latin form of the Confiteor at Mass have passed into popular culture, meaning "my fault" or "I'm sorry."
4. (c) Even if you don't get caught, intentional actions against the Commandments are sins. Something that happens by accident is not a sin.
5. (c) Sorrow for our sins and a firm purpose of amendment are parts of an Act of Contrition.
6. (a) These sins are also called the seven "capital" sins.
