Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

We sometimes receive phone calls asking Fr. Civile to give "Last Rites." Previously administered only to the dying or critically ill, the sacrament is known now as the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Today the sacrament is extended to all who are ill or are about to undergo an operation or treatment. Like the sacraments of Eucharist and Reconciliation to which it is closely linked, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick can be repeated as often as necessary. There is no need nor reason to wait for the last possible moment. You're encouraged to call the parish office 422-0602 if you would like to receive the Anointing of the Sick for yourself or a loved one.

For Young Parishioners My Mass Book A Child's Resource Guide

We have available My Mass Book, a child's resource guide for all the essential points of the Mass. These guides include colorful pictures, easy to follow prayers - including clear PRIEST parts and PEOPLE responses - and additional notations that help in explaining to younger parishioners what's happening, why and when during the Mass celebration. These guides are meant to stay in the churches, so please be sure to return them after Mass.

Don't forget to pick up a free weekly take-home Children's Worship Bulletin available in two age groups 3 to 6 and 7 to 12.

Summer Nursery Available During 10:30 AM Mass

Take advantage of our Nursery, located in the St. John Center during the 10:30 AM Mass. Parish big kids play with the little kids and they have fun!

Health Ministry:

Do You Have a Controlling Personality?

Everyone has some controlling traits, but there are those who have "an obsessive need to exercise control over themselves, others and any situation." It's driven by low self-esteem and high levels of anxiety (deep-seated fears) which destroys relationships. Possible traits of a controller:

- Self-centered; concerned chiefly with own interests.
- Expects admiration, attention and regular compliments.
- Has a temper and uses it often.
- Puts your confidence down; squashes your self-esteem.
- Tries to change others; make you more like them.
- Criticizes others in the attempt to make themselves more impressive.
- Can't accept or understand the word no.
- Has low self-esteem; is moody and jealous.
- Gets frustrated with questions if they don't know the answer; will lie rather than admit they don't know.
- Uses controlling language - not requests, but commands, for example, I need you to do this now. I didn't ask your opinion. Don't interrupt me.

Introductions to Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - 2 Kings 4:42-44

Elisha was the successor of the great prophet Elijah, who lived about 800 years before Christ. Elisha was noted for his miraculous deeds. Today we hear of one such deed performed during a time of famine.

Second Reading - Ephesians 4:1-6

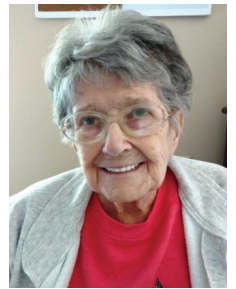

The first three chapters of the letter to the Ephesians teach doctrine; we now begin with the next part of the letter which contains practical advice for Christian living. In today's passage, you will hear the author speak of seven ways in which Christians are united. In one sense, this is the foundation of the ecumenical movement.
