Health Ministry:

Facing the Realities of Aging

Here are some quotes on aging, even though GROUCHO MARX said, Age is not a particularly interesting subject. Anyone can get old. All you have to do is live long enough. Old age is always fifteen years older than I am.

- OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES

Old age is like everything else. To make a success of it, you've got to start young.

- THEODORE ROOSEVELT

There is no pleasure worth forgoing just for an extra three years in the geriatric ward.

- JOHN MORTIMER

It is better to wear out than to rust out.

- BISHOP RICHARD CUMBERLAND

Wrinkles should merely indicate where smiles have been. - MARK TWAIN

An archaeologist is the best husband any woman can have: the older she gets, the more interested he is in her. - AGATHA CHRISTI

Don't let aging get you down. It's too hard to get back up. - JOHN WAGNER

A man is not old until regrets take the place of dreams. - JOHN BARRYMORE

Introductions to Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Proverbs 9:1-6

The book of Proverbs is a collection of wise sayings, compiled over a number of centuries. Here, the author personifies Wisdom as a woman. She offers guidance on how to live a life pleasing to God. This is symbolized as a banquet at which she serves fine food.

Second Reading - Ephesians 5:15-20

Today's passage from the letter to the Ephesians continues reflections on how to live as a Christian in everyday life. In the world in which the author lived, two things particularly kept people from living a dignified life: ignorance and addiction to alcohol. The first-century author sets forth high expectations for Christians.

There is no obligation to go further, but if you wish to continue, RCIA is the process for entering the Catholic Church. A Thank You Letter from Sister Sarah Mulligan

To Father John Civile and all the Parishioners:

Your prayers and generous donations are a gift to many children and families, helping us to provide much needed health and education services. Here is one success story of child: Nelson is 9 years old and in the first grade. We met him a few years ago when he was basically a "street kid." Nelson had not been with his mother since he was two years old. His father worked ten or twelve hours a day and thought that Nelson should be able to take care of himself.

The first year he failed the first grade in a class of 45 students with one teacher. Nelson is now attending a Catholic boarding school and very proud of all his grades in the 90th percentile.

The Sisters give him the love, attention, and discipline which he failed to receive for many years.

It was wonderful to be present for a morning at the Vacation Bible School in June. The children, teachers and volunteers are a positive expression of God's love and care for us.

GRACIAS for your prayers and donations, which will secure for many children a better future.

Sister Sarah Mulligan,

DANIEL COMBONI CLINIC, GUATEMALA, CENTRAL AMERICA
