Redemption

Do you remember Peter on the night Jesus was arrested? He claimed he had never heard of Jesus. Today we are called to join Peter in testifying to the name of Jesus as he does in the first reading, and in proclaiming our love for him as Peter does in the Gospel passage. The powerful imagery of John's vision in the second reading from the book of Revelation shows us the company we keep when we have faith in the name of Jesus. We join all living creatures, "countless in number" from "heaven, earth, under the earth, in the sea; everything in the universe" (Revelation 5:11, 13). The dignity and majesty described in each reading are in stark contrast to the dark and pitiful image of Peter and the other apostles at the time of Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion. What a relief that we can all be redeemed so completely!

Family Perspective by Bud Ozar

Jesus invited the disciples to "Come and Have breakfast." At this beach breakfast and the Last Supper Jesus teaches us meals should be more than eating. Family meals are opportunities to share prayer, listen to each other's stories, understand and support one another.

Better than Miracles

Suffering out of love of God is better than working miracles.

—St. John of the Cross

Just Do It

Whatever you can do or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, power, and magic in it.

—Attributed to Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

From the Desk of the Administrator

You know how sometimes you receive a message via some form of media, and you know exactly what it's going to say? More than likely you already know that the message is the bearer of bad news. It can happen at any time to any of us.

Well, that happened to me this past week. I received a notice telling me of the death of Dorothy Kutchka. "Grandma Dot," as she was known to the grandkids, is the mom of my buddy Jay in Arkansas. She had been on our parish prayer list for a year or so. She had cancer.

As I learned of Grandma Dot's passing, I thought about her life. She always reminded me of the proper southern woman. She was always so impeccably dressed and coiffed. When she spoke, that too was so meticulous. When I visited last fall, she was sick, yet still so proper in every respect. She will be missed by her husband Joe, her sons Jeff, Jay, and Jody, and the grandkids. May she rest in peace. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace.

My expected, yet unexpected, trip to Arkansas this past week put a small wrench in my schedule. However, the things we do for the love of others is so great, isn't it? I just had to be there for Jay and his family.

Yet life goes on, doesn't it? You see that in some inserts in today's bulletin.

One of the bulletin inserts is directly about us. With the arrival of the Christ Child Society, we have to liquidate our railroad. So, at the end of the month we will be having a sale. There's lots of good bargains to be had, if you're into trains, toy cars, and ceramic houses. Come to the sale. And Shhh! There's a secret to all this. Friday from 7-9:00 PM there is a Parishioner ONLY pre-sale!!!!

The other bulletin insert is indirectly about us. It is another of the continuing series of On Mission for the Church Alive! Planning Process updates. Let's keep this process at the center of our prayers so that through the Pascal Mystery – the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus – we too may be alive in Him.

See you in Church!

On Mission for The Church Alive!

This week's issue of the Pittsburgh Catholics is being mailed to registered homes throughout the diocese to continue our study of "On Mission for The Church Alive!" The bottom line in "on Mission" is our understanding of what it means to be a disciple of Jesus in today's world and what that means to each of us. We are his disciples. And as his disciples we want to make new disciples. That is our vocation, our call in this life and our mission. How can we best live that out today in our parishes?

Be sure to read this informative issue of the Pittsburgh Catholic to keep up to date with "On Mission for The Church Alive!" and visit www.OnMissionChurchAlive.org.

BOX

If you think about it, our liturgy is full of acclamations. There are the more obvious ones, like the Memorial Acclamation or the Gospel Acclamation, and there are more subtle acclamations such as when we say "Thanks be to God!" at the end of readings and at the end of Mass. An acclamation is a ritual verbal expression of approval or benediction. When we recite or sing these acclamations, we give our assent to what came before or what comes after it – our own seal of approval, if you will. A very well known acclamation is given by the angels in the Second Reading from Revelation: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." This acclamation has been the basis for many hymns over the centuries. It was used in the final movement in Handel's "Messiah". It is part of the text for the hymn "Festival Canticle: This Is the Feast", and has been incorporated into many contemporary christian hymns and songs as well. This acclamation directly references the death and resurrection of Christ, and perfectly voices our joy and praise for his gift of salvation. That is perhaps why it has been set to music so many times in different eras of history. We long to sing it with the many angels around the throne of God!

Yours in ministry,
Tom Rishel

Dear Family of All Saints, Our family would like to thank you for your prayers, condolences and support in the loss of our Mother, Agnes Huber Giel. Agnes lived a long and happy life and will be sadly missed by friends and family; and you being present meant so much to us.
