Jubilee Year of Mercy

Good Shepherd Sunday: World Day of Prayer for Vocations

This Sunday celebrates Jesus as "the Good Shepherd." When announcing this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis focused on Jesus' "lost sheep" parable in Luke.

"[Who] among you," Jesus asks, "having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it?" (Luke 15:4). A reasonable answer? "No responsible shepherd who wants to keep the job!" Yet Jesus considers one lost person supremely important and suggests blaming the shepherd. The sheep didn't "go astray," the shepherd "lost" it. Thus, "when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy" (15:5). That tender image of Jesus adorns the simple cross Pope Francis has always worn, the Good Shepherd gently carrying the lost sheep home on his shoulders. During this Jubilee Year of Mercy, may we, who once were lost ourselves but now are found, join Jesus in seeking, finding, and gently carrying home at least one precious lamb.

From the Desk of the Administrator

I sometimes wonder about our world. And it's not the big global conflicts, it's the really small things. Let me explain.

What makes us have to be so crazy busy all the time? Our world seems to run 25/8/366 – that's hours per day, days per week, days per year. Yea, I know it's really 24/7/365. Yet we move like the former. Why?

Why can't we "stop and smell the roses"?

There seems to be this unwritten law that being unproductive is, well, unproductive. Isn't that crazy?

Of course, as I write this, I am using the plural "we" as I'm really looking in the mirror! A friend recently emailed that she prays that my guardian angel kick me in the head to wise up and slow down. I teased back saying, "Oh, THAT'S why I have had headaches recently!" Well, there have been headaches, but not the brain kind!

What can be done? It goes back to my New Year's resolution to take care of you and me. So, let us pray for and with each other through the craziness. Let's resolve to set some boundaries and put the electronics aside. And, most importantly, let's smell the new life that Easter can and will bring to you and to me!

Speaking of things to do, let's keep in mind our Confirmation Candidates as well as our Second Graders. Both have big events in their near future! May the Holy Spirit and our Eucharistic Lord give them and us what we need to be faithful disciples.

See you in Church!

Fr. Jim Dretz

On Mission for The Church Alive!

It is the "Great Commission," Jesus' instruction to the Apostles in the last verses of the Gospel of Matthew (28: 18-20): "Then Jesus approached and said to them, 'All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age.'" That is our mission as disciples.

BOX

This Sunday is the Fourth Sunday of Easter, which is often referred to as "Good Shepherd Sunday".

The prayers and readings of this Sunday's liturgy contain a plethora of Shepherd imagery. In the collect prayer, the priest prays that "the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before." In response to the Psalm, we proclaim that "We are his people, the sheep of his flock." The Gospel reading quotes Jesus as saying "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." Finally, in the Prayer after Communion, the priest prays "Look upon your flock, kind Shepherd, and be pleased to settle in eternal pastures the sheep you have redeemed by the Precious Blood of your Son." The mind of the Church is on shepherds this Sunday, so it makes sense that it is also World Day of Prayer for Religious Vocations. Take some time to pray for those who do the work of the Good Shepherd here on earth. Pray for priests, deacons, and those in religious orders, as well as the lay people who increasingly are needed in positions of leadership in the Church today.

Yours in ministry,
Tom Rishel
