This is showcased in our four core values, namely:

Prayer: Dependence on God and Communicating with God.

Ministry: Having knowledge of the faith and putting it into practice.

Christian Attitude: Being welcoming, hospitable, compassionate, caring, and loving of everyone.

Stewardship: Care for the spiritual and physical assets of the Parish, namely our time, talent, and treasure.

From the Desk of the Administrator

You know, vacations are interesting. You know it's coming. You have great anticipation. You can't wait. Once on site, it's a chance to wind-down a little and catch your breath. You think, "Ah this is living!" Then it's all over. At that moment you are wishing you were away again! Welcome to my last two weeks! Thanks to those who asked about it. It was good. It was REALLY hot. I even still have all my family members alive and speaking to me. And now the work goes on and on and on....

On Saturday, as I was celebrating my 22nd anniversary, Bishop Zubik ordained three new transitional Deacons and three new Priests. Let us support and pray for Fathers Jack Demnyan, Adam Potter and Anthony Sciarappa, as well as Deacons Benjamin Barr, David Green and Daniel Waruszewski. May God grant them many years of service to the Church.

And speaking of years of service, we rejoice with our parishioner Annette Scheid as she turns 100 years young on Thursday! May God grant her ANOTHER 100 years!

As you see elsewhere, the Festival is getting up to speed. Don't forget to pick-up some raffle tickets. Don't forget to sign-up to be a worker. Don't forget to encourage some friends to do the same! While an important financial project, it's social and spiritual too. So, be a part of the fun at Festival 2016!

For me, it was very interesting Church-wise over the last week on a number of levels. Let me share two with you.

One level was talking with Fr. Albert last weekend. He too is a pastor. He has been ordained now 20 years. My most vivid memory was him mentioning the families who come to him worried about their children who no longer participate in Church. Half a world away and the same problem. Interesting huh?

Another level was my visit to the parish of St. Theresa in Mooresville, NC, for Sunday Mass. I went as a "person". What I heard was interesting. They are reducing their Mass schedule in the months to come. The parish has been run by the Jesuits since its birth. In the bulletin, the Jesuit Provincial announced they are leaving due to the aging of the Jesuit community! Further, the parish reported some 3,500 FAMILIES, with some 2,200 souls coming to Mass. Interesting, huh?

See you in Church!

BOX

The message conveyed in this Sunday's readings is simple: we must keep completely focused on following the Lord. This is true in life as well as in our worship. When we listen to the readings, pray the prayers, sing the hymns, and say the responses, we need to be focused on what they are saying to us and on what we are proclaiming to God. It is far too easy for our thoughts to wander to other aspects of our lives, and we miss the chance to hear God's voice as well as the chance to voice our concerns to the Lord. It can be difficult to shut out the outside world while we are in prayer and worship at Mass, but it is critical that we do so to allow the Eucharistic feast to change us, strengthen us, and mold us into the disciples Christ wants us to be!

Yours in ministry,
Tom Rishel

Refreshments will be provided. For the full construction schedule, see the insert in this week's bulletin.

Entertainment

On Wednesday, July 13, Festival 2016 kicks off with a return performance of the folk group Tullycavy (previously known as Maddie & Friends). This group features singer/songwriter Maddie Arnold, who has performed at Hartwood Acres as well as other venues around the Pittsburgh area. Tullycavy will do two performances: 7:00 to 7:45 PM, and 8:30 to 9:15 PM.

On Friday, July 15, listen to the blues and rock sounds of Cue Ball. These musicians have been performing in the Pittsburgh area, Ohio, and Michigan since 2004. This band has ventured into blues, folk rock, country rock, as well as Irish, and can take you on a musical journey that covers it all.

Then on Saturday, July 16, come out and listen to Kardaz as these versatile entertainers take us from the doo-wop revival to the Beatles, from Simon and Garfunkel to Elton John. You might even hear them do their internationally famous rally song for the Pittsburgh Penguins, "The Mighty 'Guin.'" Join us as we close out a week of great entertainment!
