Jubilee Year of Mercy

This Jubilee Year of Mercy and Pope Francis' ministry have renewed our understanding that the Church's heart is open wide to all, and the heart of the gospel is God's mercy. Flooded with God's mercy, our hearts should overflow as channels bringing to wounded and weary hearts Jesus' healing mercy. For Jesus warns, our own salvation is not guaranteed by the Liturgy of the Word ("you taught in our streets") nor by the Eucharist ("we ate and drank in your company") (Luke 13:26). People far from that banquet, "from the east and the west and from the north and the south . . . will recline at table in the kingdom of God" (13:29). Rather, showing mercy is key to obtaining mercy ourselves (Matthew 5:7). So we should never dare ask what "someone" asked Jesus, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" (Luke 13:23). The crucial question is "Will I be saved?" And Jesus' answer is another question: "Have you shown mercy to everyone, freely, gladly, no limits, no conditions, no exceptions?"

From the Desk of the Administrator

Beginning this week, if I'm not mistaken, are the clergy vicariate meetings. Mine, for Vicariate 4, is not until August 31st. I'd ask you to keep these four meetings in your prayers. Why? Well, they will be a time for us Priests in a spirit of prayer to receive the suggest models for the On Mission Planning Process. NOTICE, I said SUGGESTED models. Again, NO DECISICIONS have been made. It will be up to the clergy, then the parish teams, and then parishioners in general to have an opportunity to study and understand. This whole process needs to be kept in prayer.

The On Mission Planning Process revealed at these meetings MUST BE under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. I will tell you also, this will be a time of CHANGE! Oh, perish the thought! No one likes change. Yet, it happens. Are you the same you were 10, 20, 30 or more years ago? Haven't you changed? Shouldn't you ADMIT that you've changed? And guess what, your church has changed too! Those among us who are "long of tooth" recall a time of THREE PRIESTS assigned to the parish; today you have a part-time Priest. Others recall a time when the building was standing room only; today we could all fit in at one Mass. We, the world, the Church are all changing.

Yet, as we change, it should be a time of hope. I think about the courage and hope of Fr. Keller and the founding parishioners to make this parish happen. I'm sure there was fear and trepidation. Yet, as the famous quote says, Fr. Keller wanted ALL the SAINTS to intercede for him and the community to make it happen. And guess what? It did. Further, we too can make it happen if we too are truly people of prayer! Invoke ALL the SAINTS in your prayer today to intercede for us!

So, what IS hope? Well, thanks to www.dictionary.com, accessed on 12 August 2016, we can read the following: "the feeling that what is wanted can be had or that events will turn out for the best". The future is ours to decide. There are so many possibilities, both good and bad. Yet, ultimately we are laying bricks, if you will, on the foundation built by Fr. Keller and parishioners 114 years ago. And there will be those who lay bricks on our construction. And in the midst of it all, the Gospel is preached. Let's keep THAT important work always before us!

See you in Church!

BOX

This Sunday's liturgy brings us another example of great synergy between the first reading and the psalm. In the first reading, the Lord says “I come to gather nations of every language . . . and they shall proclaim my glory among the nations.” The first words of the psalm taken from Psalm 117 echo this closely: “Praise the Lord, all you nations; glorify him, all you peoples!” Should we start booking flights now to far-flung places in the world to praise and proclaim God to the nations? Actually, we can start simply by singing his praise with the hymns and songs in church. Then, we can carry that joy out in our daily lives to every person we meet. Before long, it might just spread far beyond us to many nations without us ever setting foot upon an airplane!

All Saints Choir will resume soon for 2016-17 with the first practice on Thursday, September 8th. More on that next week.

Yours in ministry,
Tom Rishel
