Kingship

The book of Samuel recounts for us today the anointing of David as king of Israel. It was the elders of Israel who declared David king that day, but it was God who called David to shepherd Israel. Thus mandated by the citizens of his kingdom and by his God, David took his place in a long line of kings.

The apostle Paul speaks to us of kingship as well, but on a much higher plane: the kingship of Jesus our Lord. As great as David was, he and all earthly monarchs who came before and after him in their kingdoms around the world are minor kings by comparison to the true King. And lastly, we hear the story of that true King in perhaps his weakest moment: near death, hanging on a cross, taunted by a common criminal and by the world at large.

“Leadership with the Heart of Christ”

The Pittsburgh Catholic Magazine entitled “Leadership with the Heart of Christ” is available in the church vestibule. The Secretariat For Leadership Development and Evangelization invites you to read it diligently. It is intended to assist you in discerning your potential great purpose in life, in the church and for the sake of the kingdom of God. Pick up a copy and find the article by our Administrator!

Ecumenical Service

Calvert Memorial Church, 94 Locust St, Etna, will be hosting the Thanksgiving Ecumenical Service on Wednesday, November 23rd at 7:00 PM. All are welcome.

From the Desk of the Administrator

Let's continue our discussion of the On Mission for the Church Alive! planning process criteria. Last week I talked about the criteria for Proper/Accessible Pastoral Care. This week we consider the THREE (3) criteria for Resources.

13. Viable models do not group parishes of great financial distress or great financial affluence together unless all neighboring parishes share a similar financial situation in order provide a sound financial footing for continued growth and pastoral care. As we look at the models, very few of them have a great CURRENT financial picture. However, when you consider the math of less clergy, more Lay Ecclesial Ministers, fewer buildings, I believe that when all is said and done, the financial health will be much better.

14. For the sake of outreach to the poor and the salvation of souls, viable models can waive criteria for financial viability provided an alternative financing plan other than the parish's own resources can be developed. I think that the care of the poor is critical. NOT becoming poor as a new entity is ALSO critical. This criteria is yet to truly unfold.

15. Viable models consider the effect that current parish assets or liabilities would have on other parishes should changes to those parishes take place. This includes the transfer of debt and/or savings as to not gravely or disproportionately impact the parishes of reception or new parish entity. The most important notation in this regard is that our cluster – St. Joseph, St. Juan Diego, St. Scholastica, and us – carry NO debt forward. That's a plus!

These few criteria give me some space for other pressing announcements. They are as follows:

This week is Thanksgiving. On Wednesday evening, the Etna Ecumenical Service will be held at Calvert Memorial with yours truly preaching. In addition, our traditional Thanksgiving Day Mass will be at 9:00 AM. Come and give thanks to God for the blessings bestowed upon you.

Next week begins the season of Advent, already! As in the past, 40 Minutes with Jesus will be held every Mon., Tues., Thurs., and Fri. from 6:30-7:10 PM. However, this year, we will continue it through the Christmas Season. So prepare and then bask in the light of the newborn Christ!

See you in Church!

The Light is On For YOU!
"The Light is On For You!" is an initiative of the Diocese of Pittsburgh to encourage Catholics to avail themselves of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confession is a wonderful opportunity to set aside our sinful ways and to draw closer to our Lord. Confession will be available on Wednesday, December 14th from 6:00-9:00 PM in every Catholic parish in the Diocese.

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH ALIVE! is about relationships—our personal relationship with Jesus, and with each other in Him. We are invited to listen and discern how God is calling us to fulfill His mission together. As parish consultation sessions continue, it is important to get educated and engaged in how all our parishes, schools and ministries can be vital centers of worship and service.

BOX
We've arrived at the end of yet another liturgical year! If there's one thing to take away from the readings in Lectionary cycle C, it is that the Lord is a God of justice and mercy who cares greatly for the poor, the sick, and the sinner. We see another example of this again this Christ the King Sunday. The Gospel reading is that of Christ on the cross, assuring the good thief that he will be with Jesus in paradise, in spite of his sinfulness. Even in his hour of death, Jesus had mercy on the repentant sinner. This is especially appropriate today, as we end not just the liturgical year, but the Year of Mercy as well. The truly great news is that even though the Year of Mercy will end, God's mercy is without end. We leave this liturgical year behind with the renewed hope that the Lord will have mercy on us, and we look forward to the day when he comes again as king to "rule the earth with justice", as we heard in the response to the psalm last Sunday.
Yours in ministry,
Tom Rishel
