This is showcased in our four core values, namely:

Prayer: Dependence on God and Communicating with God.

Ministry: Having knowledge of the faith and putting it into practice.

Christian Attitude: Being welcoming, hospitable, compassionate, caring, and loving of everyone.

Stewardship: Care for the spiritual and physical assets of the Parish, namely our time, talent, and treasure.

Discipleship and Wealth

Sometimes we get the idea that having material wealth is a bad thing. We may convince ourselves that it is the poor who are favored. In today's readings, we discover that material wealth alone does not keep us from discipleship. We will see that there are other gifts more important than material wealth, but even so, it is how we use our gifts that matters most.

Today's scriptures point to the value of the gifts of wisdom, trusting in God, and letting our actions reflect the love of God from within. It is not gold that causes us to fall, but rather the desire for gold above all other things. From the readings in Wisdom and Hebrews, we find the source of God's gifts in our lives. Wisdom is more valuable than worldly possessions. In Hebrews, we are challenged to look at our own values and admit honestly what controls our lives.

From the Administrator's Car

Since God is good, I should be driving home from Dallas at the moment. However, I have prepared these remarks prior to my departure.

Each fall Bishop Zubik gathers the clergy for a meeting. It is often a time to catch us up on what is most pressing in the diocese. Sadly, I come back from these meetings DEPRESSED as sometimes the news is not so good. The most recent meeting was good and bad. Let me share an overview with you.

The first part of the meeting was about our Diocesan "On Mission for the Church Alive!" planning process. You hear an intercession and the official prayer at the conclusion of the Prayer of the Faithful each Sunday. Models will be developed to best address evangelization, pastoral care, financial viability, and clergy distribution in the clusters, districts, and vicariates of the Diocese.

The second part was the distressing part, finances. During this fiscal year, 50% of our parishes will NOT be meeting their budgeted expense. This also effects the holdings of the Diocesan "Credit Union", for lack of a better term. I have teased about us filing Chapter 7 Bankruptcy. However, it is a serious issue in other parishes. Praise God we are holding our own at the moment. Please keep up your financial support!

The final part was on the current period of prayer. The evangelization steering committee has put forth three objectives. One is to increase daily Mass attendance. A second is to have social media outlets to encourage prayer during this time. The third is to develop further tools to assist individuals, families, parishes, and clusters, as well as Diocesan staff, to pray for the process. We can always do more praying.

Basically, the Diocese as a whole is doing what we did in the spring. We need to continually look at what ministry we are doing and what more could be collectively shared. This is not your "father's Church" any more! It's a new time and era. We can emerge stronger from the process.

You can find out some more information at the Diocesan website -

<http://diopitt.org/mission-church-alive>
 See you in Church, maybe Monday!

World Mission Sunday

Next weekend, October 17 and 18, the second collection will be taken for World Missions. As Catholics around the world — here at home and in the Missions — gather at the Eucharist around the table of the Lord, we are to pray for the Church’s worldwide missionary work. We pray for those awaiting the “Good News” of our Lord’s great love for us and for the missionaries who offer the poor and suffering the light of Christ. Please be as generous as possible for the collection.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells a man to “sell what you have, give to the poor . . . then come, follow me.” Quite a big request, and one that the man, having many possessions, was not able to fulfill. Our worship will always be rewarding to us if we, as Jesus asked of the man, become people who “give and follow”. We can give more of ourselves by diligently and consciously participating at Mass in prayer and singing. We follow by taking the words of scripture with us out the door and living them in our day to day lives. We may not necessarily be able to give away everything we have, but we can give God all we've got!

Yours in ministry,
Tom Rishel
