Reflections from Fr. Derek Sakowski

“I was hungry, and you gave me food.”

As we celebrate this Jubilee Year of Mercy, and especially as we prepare to begin another Lent, I'd like to take time to reflect more in depth upon the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The first corporal work of mercy is to feed the hungry.

In Matthew 25, Jesus describes the day when he will come in glory with all his angels, and will assemble all the nations to be judged. Each of us will be judged based on our relationship with Jesus Christ. However, far from that relationship being a merely private and personal matter, it is quite public and quite social. For the entire human race is called to be inserted into the flesh of Christ and become members of his Body, the Church. Therefore, any work of mercy done on behalf of a person in need is actually done for Christ. And any failure to love the person in front of us is a failure to love Christ.

During my doctoral studies in Rome, I read, reflected, and wrote at length about the Church as “the whole Christ,” head and members. It was a great privilege, and continues to feed my spiritual life. Through baptism, by faith, we all now share a new existence in Christ. To be a Christian is to exist as a living member of his Body. We are interconnected in him. Every good work that we do is really Christ at work in us, for we now truly exist in him.

This unity is renewed each and every time we celebrate and receive the Eucharist. We become again and again what we one day will be, when all things will be perfected as one in Christ. We receive the Body of Christ, and in so doing, are renewed and strengthened as his one Body.

This shared communion in Christ especially compels us to love the poor. As the Catechism teaches us, “The Eucharist commits us to the poor. To receive in truth the Body and Blood of Christ given up for us, we must recognize Christ in the poorest, his brethren” (CCC n. 1397). And the Catechism proceeds to quote Saint John Chrysostom, who has scathing words for those who receive Jesus in Holy Communion but then fail to love the poor: “You have tasted the Blood of the Lord, yet you do not recognize your brother ... You dishonor this table when you do not judge worthy of sharing your food someone judged worthy to take part in this meal. . . . God freed you from all your sins and invited you here, but you have not become more merciful.”

It is such a tragedy that our world has so much food, yet still so many people have little or nothing to eat. Each of us here in the United States needs to engage in an ongoing examination of conscience over the lifestyle we choose to live, and over what we are doing to help the poor in our midst and throughout the world.

Right here in the Chippewa Valley, there are groups like Community Table or Feed My People that each of us can easily get involved in. I encourage you to give it a try! Please keep your eyes on the bulletin for a featured story soon on the great work that some of our parishioners are already doing.

There are even simpler ways to help. During this Lent, or on Fridays throughout the year, we can choose to sacrifice some of the food and drink we like to indulge in, giving that money instead to those who work to feed the poor.

We must also keep in mind that there are many kinds of hunger. There are people all around us who feel alone and unloved. They hunger for human kindness and compassion. Poverty comes in all shapes and sizes. No one of us can make poverty go away, but each of us is given opportunities to love the person in front of us and alleviate his or her suffering. That is what mercy does – it feels compassion on the suffering of the person in front of us and seeks to ease it.

Even though some of us have no shortage of trials and sorrows in life, still, when compared with the 7 billion people in the world, our lives are incredibly comfortable and easy, and our bellies are normally full. It's so easy to forget how blessed we are and to be forgetful of the poor. We have to remember that, according to Jesus himself, we will be judged publicly for the choices we have made (or failed to make) to love Jesus in the poorest of our brothers and sisters. By his mercy at work in and through each of us, may we be numbered among the sheep on the Day of Judgment!

Sacraments

Baptism: Parents should request the baptism of their infants at least two months prior to the anticipated date of baptism. A class for parents is required. See your parish website for more information, to download forms, and to see upcoming baptismal class dates.

Marriage: Couples who want to request the celebration of the Sacrament of Marriage should contact the pastor at the time of formal engagement or at least six months prior to the anticipated date of marriage.

Anointing of the Sick: Those who are seriously ill or have been sick for a long period of time should receive the Sacrament of the Sick and Holy Communion. Please call one of the parish offices to make arrangements.

Forty Hours Devotion at St. Raymond's

The Importance of Eucharistic Devotions

Although the Mass is central to Catholic life, devotions to the Eucharist are also important. Through them we can adore Jesus, pray in his presence, express our sorrow for sin, and experience a oneness with him that leads us to participate in the Mass.

Our Forty Hours Devotion will begin on Ash Wednesday, February 10. This is an opportunity for people to gather as a community before the Blessed Sacrament and to pray to Our Lord in solemn adoration.

Forty Hours Devotion gives us time to deepen our appreciation of the importance of the mystery of the Eucharist in our lives.

Forty is a significant number. Noah was on the ark for forty days. The Israelites spent forty years in the desert. Jesus fasted for forty days, and it could be said that Jesus lay in the tomb for approximately forty hours from Good Friday to Easter Sunday. In Rome, this period of forty hours of Solemn Exposition of the Eucharist was scheduled so that the forty hours devotion in each church formed a continuous time of adoration from church to church.

Schedule:

Ash Wednesday, February 10

6:30p—Mass

7:30p—Forty Hours Devotion begin

Thursday, February 11

12:00a—8:00a Forty Hours continue

8:00a—Mass

8:30a—Forty Hours continue

7:00p—Moira Kneer—Presentation on “Spiritual and Corporal Works of Mercy” will be held in the parish hall

7:00-9:00p—Confessions

(Forty Hours continue through the evening & night)

Friday, February 12

12:00a—4:00p Forty Hours Continue

3:50p—4:00p Forty Hours conclude with Benediction

*If you wish to sign up for an hour, please contact Nan Falbo at 715-878-4767
email her at: tnfalbo@charter.net*

"Let us be generous with our time in going to meet Jesus and ready to make reparation for the great evils of the world.

Let your adoration never cease."

(Pope John Paul II, Dominicae Cenae)

At St. Mary's: Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament: Wednesday, February 10—10:00a-6:00p. The sign up sheet is in the narthex of the church.
